Manzo,Ula C. Manzo,Thomas H. Estes,2001 The Third Edition of this well respected text introduces readers to the why and how of promoting basic and higher order literacy It does so in the context of the importance of reading and thinking as a collateral part of specific subject instruction in an increasingly interconnected local and global environment Conveyed in a clear and comprehensive manner the ideas and methods presented reflect nearly a century of progress and the continuing evolution into this age of local and worldwide telecomputing    Creating Islands of Excellence Carol Fineberg,2004 In Creating Islands of Excellence Fineberg underscores how the integration of arts based instruction can create breathtaking educational moments in and out of the classroom as she guides teachers administrators and curriculum developers around the problems that can derail well intended reform efforts    A Nation Reformed? David T. Gordon,2003 A Nation Reformed takes stock of twenty years of school reform Was the nation really ever at risk and if so is it still Which reforms have made a difference and which haven t And where do we go from here On April 26 1983 the blue ribbon National Commission on Excellence in Education issued an open letter to the American people on the state of our nation s schools A Nation at Risk The Imperative for Educational Reform was one of many such reports that year but its title and incendiary language set it apart almost immediately We were warned of a rising tide of mediocrity in our schools that imperiled the nation s future The symbolic opening salvo in a two decade long struggle to improve schools A Nation at Risk helped put education reform at the top of the national agenda
