through various phases of development and are then repurposed for learning and teaching. Educators can adopt an innovation and develop a framework that is pedagogically sound and learner centred. Based on these ideas the authors together highlight industry innovations that have potential outcomes for engaging students in music learning within research informed practices build upon these ideas and identify proactive mechanisms for teaching music education and work towards developing a framework for understanding these phenomena. The chapters address key topics including the ethics of technology, AI and music online performance and teaching, gamification, big data, teaching audio production, acoustic ecology and more. The examination of areas in contemporary innovation can further support the potential to empower teachers and students to understand the opportunities for teaching sustainability and growth in music education.
