Harmonizing Global Education Jon Baggaley,2012-05-22 Distance education DE offers ways to reach the many people around the world who lack access to education and training by other means International DE methods however are fragmented and distance educators have often abandoned new technologies before giving them a chance to develop As a result many current DE tools and techniques are incompatible with the needs and cultures of different global regions With the goal of designing efficient relevant DE for worldwide audiences Harmonizing Global Education invites scholars and practitioners to consider the historic development of technology based education and communication studies going back further in the literature than is often assumed necessary The book examines a wide range of historical ideas capable of shaping modern DE including the Luddite Revolt among British textiles workers in 1811 12 the evolution of cubist art and musical aesthetics and the visionary advances of early twentieth century Soviet multimedia specialists The author urges an awareness of previous generations of communications studies and shows how audience research relating to traditional media can be relevant in the design of current internet based and social media approaches Today's open universities have grown from these earlier historical efforts and the future success of open and distance education depends on learning from the successes and the failures of the past

Resilience of Luxury Companies in Times of Change Gabriella Lojacono,Laura Ru Yun Pan,2021-08-23 Why do some luxury companies remain resilient through times of change while others do not The reason is that these companies have unique skills to diversify their revenue generation by being ambidextrous. Luxury companies today cannot depend on their reputation or their creativity alone to remain resilient rather they require the ability to be ambidextrous to explore new trajectories for future growth and exploiting their iconic values. In past decades the industry has shifted from product to customer centric and forced companies to adopt new strategies and approaches to succeed. This includes the adoption of digital platforms such as ecommerce, social media and mobile enabled tools to continually elevate customer experience. In addition, new business models have emerged to address growing pains particularly in inventory issues over manufacturing and sustainability. Brands today are forced to adopt evolution through innovation that is anchored by new values without compromising their DNA. Based on in depth research and interviews with CEOs from leading luxury companies Lojacono and Pan show how companies can hedge their risks and remain resilient in times of change.
