 Ranard, 2009 This is the first comprehensive history of Burmese painting from eleventh century Pagan to the present including over 175 painters and more than 300 photographs of work The book explores the historical transformations of the art with psychological interpretations of major artists the legends which followed them and analysis of their oeuvres It also probes the unusual lateral dimensions of Burmese painting where 1 000 years of tradition have continued to survive and shape a rich corpus of largely unknown work Ranard links the traditional roots of Burmese painting in India with later influences from China Thailand Britain Northern Europe and America Burma is an isolated country but its art has been a
