Pictures of Nothing Kirk Varnedoe,2023-10-17 An illuminating exploration of the meaning of abstract art by acclaimed art historian Kirk Varnedoe What is abstract art good for What s the use for us as individuals or for any society of pictures of nothing of paintings and sculptures or prints or drawings that do not seem to show anything except themselves In this invigorating account of abstract art since Jackson Pollock eminent art historian Kirk Varnedoe the former chief curator of painting and sculpture at the Museum of Modern Art asks these and other questions as he frankly confronts the uncertainties we may have about the nonrepresentational art produced in the past five decades He makes a compelling argument for its history and value much as E H Gombrich tackled representation fifty years ago in Art and Illusion another landmark A W Mellon Lectures volume Realizing that these lectures might be his final work Varnedoe conceived of them as a statement of his faith in modern art and as the culminating example of his lucidly pragmatic and philosophical approach to art history He delivered the lectures edited and reproduced here with their illustrations to overflowing crowds at the National Gallery of Art in Washington in the spring of 2003 just months before his death With brilliance passion and humor Varnedoe addresses the skeptical attitudes and misunderstandings that we often bring to our experience of abstract art Resisting grand generalizations he makes a deliberate and scholarly case for abstraction showing us that more than just pure looking is necessary to understand the self made symbolic language of abstract art Proceeding decade by decade he brings alive the history and biography that inform the art while also challenging the received wisdom about distinctions between abstraction and representation modernism and postmodernism and minimalism and pop The result is a fascinating and ultimately moving tour through a half century of abstract art concluding with an unforgettable description of one of Varnedoe s favorite works Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size

Inventing Abstraction, 1910-1925 Leah Dickerman,Matthew Affron,2012

This book explores the development of abstraction from the moment of its declaration around 1912 to its establishment as the foundation of avant garde practice in the mid 1920s. The book brings together many of the most influential works in abstraction's early history to draw a cross media portrait of this watershed moment in which traditional art was reinvented in a wholesale way. Works are presented in groups that serve as case studies each engaging a key topic in abstraction's first years: an artist, a movement, an exhibition or thematic concern. Key focal points include Vasily Kandinsky's ambitious Compositions V, VI and VII, a selection of Piet Mondrian's work that offers a distilled narrative of his trajectory to Neo-Plasticism, and all the extant Suprematist pictures that Kazimir Malevich showed in the landmark 0-10 exhibition in 1915. 0-10: Exhibition MoMA New York USA 23-12-2012-15-4-2013

Ronald Paulson, 1990 Abstraction, Gesture, Ecriture Yve-Alain Bois, 1999 American Abstract Expressionism is not only one of the most fascinating but also one of the most influential periods in contemporary art after the 1940s. Abstraction Gesture Ecriture illustrates in the essays of well-known art critics as well as in the paintings selected from the Daros Collection the different abstractions and gestures in contemporary American art. It focuses on American artists who conceived of a way of painting which began with the scrawl-like gestures of Jackson Pollock, Willem de Kooning, and Joan Mitchell. Then the scriptural gesture developed out of handwriting is examined in an extraordinary group of work that spans Cy Twombly's whole career. Brice Marden's alternately fluid and tensile linear abstractions and Robert Ryman's intensive occupation with the stroke of a brush are discussed as well as Andy Warhol's answers to Abstract Expressionism in his Oxidation and Shadow Paintings in 1978. This particular movement in Abstract Expressionism has provoked an on-going dialogue in painting. Abstraction Gesture Ecriture covers this original gesture from the Action Painters and its resonance through the next generation of painters. Each painting discussed comes from the Daros Collection, a Swiss private collection which is one of the internationally most important private collections of contemporary art focusing on American art of the last 50 years. The carefully selected authors, all well-respected in the art and academic world, complete this extraordinary and beautifully designed volume. The perfect gift book.
