American Artist ,1984 Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman,1989 The Paintings of Sylvia Plimack Mangold Cheryl A. Brutvan,1994 Plimack Mangold's work has evolved from early renderings of floors mirrors and rooms to landscapes by day and by night skyscapes and portraits of individual trees done at her outdoor Hudson River valley studio She reinvented these traditional subjects by wrestling with the very process by which the artist creates illusion then letting the viewer in on her secret by bordering the image with illusionary masking tape meticulously recreated with paint and brush that simultaneously acknowledges and denies the painted surface This lavishly illustrated full color volume is published in conjunction with a retrospective exhibition of Plimack Mangold's paintings organized by the Albright Knox Art Gallery in Buffalo New York and traveling to Hartford Houston and Boston Covering more than a quarter century of work it includes a monographic essay by Cheryl Brutvan Curator at the Albright Knox as well as full documentation of the artist's career to date Chronology Selected Bibliography and Selected Exhibitions and Reviews It also reproduces a number of pages from the artist's notebooks providing a rare privileged glimpse at the thoughtful intelligence and aesthetic beliefs that underlie these magical canvases canvases that give expression to the intimate reality of the artist's existence give form to the intangible BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Creative Essence Nina Freedlander Gibans,2005 Examines regional culture through the contributions of visual arts and includes a DVD Arising out of the Cleveland Artists Foundation's Dialogue Series a 22 hour long collection of forums held in cultural institutions and broadcast on National Public Radio Creative Essence examines regional culture through an exploration of the distinguished contributions Cleveland has made to the visual arts and architecture The Dialogue Series brought together a variety of people in the visual arts community to discuss the development of the region's creative life and environment

whether it be through architecture and city planning or through the industrial and fine arts They shared their views and knowledge about how regionalism has long influenced artistic productivity Their exchanges and ideas for the future are provocative and thoughtful Richly illustrated with the work of well known Cleveland area artists and architects past and present Creative Essence explores the region s tradition beginning with the Cleveland School of artists that was active and influential during the first half of the twentieth century It moves on to examine the changes that occurred in the last half of the century and the development of the visual arts in northeast Ohio Creative Essence is an important resource for understanding the significant role the visual arts play in our cities and societies and how they contribute to the region s quality of life For those interested in regional history and for students of art history and the visual arts this will be especially valuable

Late Bresson and the Visual Arts Raymond Watkins,2025-10-01 The color films of French film director Robert Bresson 1901 99 have largely been neglected despite the fact that Bresson himself considered them to be more fully realized reflections of his aspirations for the cinema This study presents a revised and revitalized Bresson comparing his late style to painterly innovations in color light and iconography from the Middle Ages to the present to abstract painting in France after World War II and to affinities with the avant garde movements of Surrealism Constructivism and Minimalism Drawing on media archeology this study views Bresson s work through such allied visual arts practices as painting photography sculpture theater and dance

Selected Works Minneapolis Institute of Arts,Sandra L. Lipshultz,1988 A richly illustrated guide to the highlights of this world renowned collection In 1883 fourteen men and eleven women incorporated the Minneapolis Society of Fine Arts to advance the knowledge and love of art Their dream of establishing a public museum was realized three decades later when the Minneapolis Institute of Arts opened its doors in 1915 housed in a building designed by McKim Mead and White Since that time the permanent collection of the museum has grown to one hundred thousand objects and includes representative masterpieces from every continent and age. This beautifully produced handbook abounding with full color illustrations pictures key objects in the Institute's collection and provides basic information about their artists and cultures. Selected Works is organized chronologically by broad historical periods: the ancient world, the Middle Ages, the Renaissance, the baroque period and the eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth centuries, and includes sections devoted to Asian and American art and the art of indigenous peoples. Presenting the best works in the collection and demonstrating the wide range and diversity of holdings, it is a valuable resource for anyone with an interest in the visual arts. Distributed for the Minneapolis Institute of Arts.
