Painting Beyond Pollock:

Painting Beyond Pollock Morgan Falconer, 2015-04-20 Painting Beyond Pollock is a captivating account of the history of European and American painting from the mid 20th century onwards. Art historian and critic Morgan Falconer presents an extensively researched piece of writing that explains why painting has surged in popularity since Jackson Pollock and the Abstract Expressionists began painting in the late 1940s early 1950s. Drawing on both original sources and contemporary scholarship, this bold and richly designed book lavishly illustrates the most important works made beginning in the Post War era. In addition to well known artists such as Willem de Kooning, Agnes Martin, Alex Katz, Ellsworth Kelly, Marlene Dumas, Gerhard Richter and Brice Marden, Falconer explores the work of contemporary stars such as Cecily Brown, Mark Grotjahn, Elizabeth Peyton, John Currin, Neo Rauch and Mark Bradford, as well as up and coming artists such as Blink Palermo and Sigmar Polke. Topics include Things must be pulverized, Abstract Expressionism, Wounded Painting, Informel in Europe and Beyond, Against Gesture, Geometric Abstraction, Witnesses, Post war Figurative Painting, AntiTradition, Pop Painting, PostPainting, Part I After Pollock, A transcendental high art, Neo Expressionism and its Discontents, Post Painting, Part II After Pop, New Figuration, Pop Romantics.

Painting After Pollock Jeanne Siegel, 1999 Jeanne Siegel takes a fresh approach in this work, concentrating on artists who have been profoundly influenced by Jackson Pollock's work. She argues that artistic roots are not limited to stylistic innovations but include influences such as biography, cultural, political and economic developments.

Seeing and Beyond Deborah J. Johnson, David Ogawa, Kermit Swiler Champa, 2005 This volume is an exciting eclectic collection of essays in honor of Kermit S. Champa, a leading scholar of impressionism and critic of twentieth century art. The lead essay by David Carrier is followed by others from several generations of scholars and museum curators trained by Professor Champa. Together they cover an extremely wide historical range from the eighteenth to twenty first centuries and honor Professor Champa's own scholarly rigor, methodological diversity and intellectual breadth through topics ranging from art history to cultural studies. Weak Painting After Modernism Craig Staff, 2023-09-01 This book examines the terms upon which painting in the United States sought to negotiate with the legacy of American formalist aesthetics and by extension the understanding of modernist painting it had become most readily associated with. In so doing, a separate set of possibilities for painting gradually began to emerge. The salient debates and practices that collectively worked to establish such a response are approached through the philosopher Gianni Vattimo's idea of pensiero debole or so called weak thought. To this end, the proposed study both identifies and seeks to examine a type of weak painting which like Vattimo's idea took as its critical point of departure the exhaustion but not the vanishing of the project of modernism, the belief in reason, progress.

history the nation state etc Craig Staff explores particular instances wherein artists sought to extend the parameters of the object beyond what had been called into question namely the proclivity for modernist painting's strength to be understood as denoting amongst other things a perceived set of universal essences This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history fine art cultural studies critical theory curatorial studies and philosophy Pollock Painting Barbara Rose, 1980
