Miasma Robert Parker, 1990 Purity and the Forming of Religious Traditions in the Ancient Mediterranean World and Ancient Judaism, 2012-11-01 Purity is a cultural construct that had a central role in the forming and the development of religious traditions in the ancient Mediterranean This volume analyzes concepts practices and images associated with purity in the main cultures of Antiquity and discusses from a comparative perspective their parallel developments and transformations The perspective adopted is both synchronic and diachronic the comparative approach takes into account points of contact and mutual influences but also includes major transcultural trends A number of renowned specialists contribute a large variety of perspectives and approaches combining archaeology epigraphy and social history in addition particular attention is given to concepts of purity in ancient Israel and early Judaism as a test case of sorts Through its extensive coverage the volume contributes decisively to the present discussion about the forming of religious traditions in the ancient Mediterranean world Contributors include Philippe Borgeaud Beate Ego Christian Frevel Linda Marie G nther Michael Guichard Gudrun Holtz Manfred Hutter Albert de Jong Michael Konkel Bernhard Linke Lionel Marti Hans Peter Mathys Christophe Nihan Joachim Friedrich Quack Benedikt Rausche Noel Robertson Udo R tersw rden Ian Werrett and J rgen K Zangenberg Understanding Material Text Cultures Markus Hilgert, 2016-12-19 The present volume comprises 6 highly original studies on material text cultures in different nontypographic societies stretching from the 3rd millennium cuneiform textual record of Ancient Mesopotamia to 20th century Qur'anic boards of northern and central African provenience It provides a multidisciplinary approach to material text cultures complementary to the interdisciplinary strongly theory grounded research scheme of the CRC 933 Six research fellowships were awarded to outstanding young researchers for innovative high risk research proposals pertinent to the CRC 933 s overall research scheme Their studies contained in this volume add multidisciplinary dimension to material text culture research satisfy the curiosity as to the applicability of the theoretical premises and methodology developed and tested by the CRC 933 to research on inscribed artefacts carried out on an international level and in different research environments and contribute to anchoring material text culture research as proposed by the CRC 933 within the tradition and broader context of other research strategies devoted to the material dimension of writing such as the filologia materiale The Daēva Cult in the Gāthās Amir Ahmadi, 2015-04-10 Addressing the question of the origins of the Zoroastrian religion this book argues that the intransigent opposition to the cult of the daevas the ancient Indo Iranian gods is the root of the development of the two central doctrines of Zoroastrianism cosmic dualism and eschatology fate of the soul after death and its passage to the other world The daeva cult as it appears in the G th s the oldest part of the Zoroastrian sacred text the Avesta had eschatological pretensions The poet of the G th s condemns these as deception The book critically examines various theories put forward since the 19th century to account for the condemnation of the daevas It then turns to the relevant G thic passages and analyzes them in detail in order to give a picture of the cult and the reasons for its repudiation Finally it examines materials from other sources especially the Greek accounts of Iranian ritual lore mainly in the context of the mystery cults Classical Greek writers consistently associate the nocturnal ceremony of the magi with the mysteries as belonging to the same religious cultural category This shows that Iranian religious lore included a nocturnal rite that aimed at ensuring the soul's journey to the beyond and a desirable afterlife Challenging the prevalent scholarship of the Greek interpretation of Iranian religious lore and proposing a new analysis of the formation of the Hellenistic concept of magic this book is an important resource for students and scholars of History Religion and Iranian Studies

Rulers of the Sea John Nash,2023-12-04 This is a study of sea power and maritime strategy in the Classical Greek world More than just a study of navies and battles it examines how the sea was used to influence events ashore and how the use of naval power combined with land power had a defining impact on the period After an examination of the oft overlooked practical issues of navigation and administration the book explores the idea of a maritime consciousness in Greece and how this shaped the way the Greeks engaged in war Naval operations from the Persian Wars down to the rise of Thebes are examined at the operational and strategic level including a catalogue of the hundreds of different maritime operations from the 5th and 4th centuries BCE Further while the great sea power Athens is most prominent it looks at other city states to examine how they utilised sea power This new approach uses modern theory to highlight some enduring lessons of sea power It demonstrates that Classical scholars should embrace sea power as an important concept in the Greek world Modern scholars of naval and strategic studies should cast their gaze further back in time when looking for lessons in sea power This book helps to bridge the scholarship between these two disciplines
