Party of Twelve: the Afterlife Interviews Barbara With,2008-07      Party of Twelve Barbara With,2008-09-01 Party of Twelve Post 9 11 is the autobiography of Barbara With the remarkable story of her journey to become the emissary for a party of notable dead people headed up by Albert Einstein Their first book Party of Twelve The Afterlife Interviews is a collection of conversations with 12 of the most famous figures of the 20th century all working together for world peace Along with the continuation of those interviews Post 9 11 is also Barbara s amazing story of how she became a part of their mission and her journey to test the theory of Conflict Revolution their answer to world peace one person at a time starting with self

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001-08      ,      Roman Women's Dress Jan Radicke,2022-11-07 The book concerns female dress in Roman life and literature The main focus is on female Roman dress as it may have been worn in daily life in Rome and in a social environment influenced by Roman culture in the time from the beginnings of the Republic until the end of the 2nd century AD There is however a certain surplus as to its contents because many Latin texts also talk about mythical Greek dress and the largely fictional early Roman dress Altogether large parts of the history of Roman dress are only known to us through what scholars thought about it in Classical and Late Antiquity For this reason this book is not only about real female Roman dress but also about the ancient pseudo discourse on early female Roman dress which has been taken too seriously by modern scholarship This pseudo discourse has been mixed together with real facts to produce an ahistorical fabric It therefore appeared necessary to break with this old tradition and to take a completely new path The detailed analysis of many texts on female Roman dress is the basis of this new handbook meant for philologists historians and archaeologists alike

Films that Spill Marie Sophie Beckmann,2025 Films That Spill takes up a previously understudied moment in 1980s underground culture in New York City called Cinema of Transgression offering both a microhistory of the intermingling art music performance and film scenes of the time and a glimpse into their afterlives

I'll Be Your Mirror Kenneth Goldsmith,2009-04-27 The Question and Answer interview was one of Andy Warhol s favorite communication vehicles so much so that he named his own magazine after the form Yet never before has anyone published a collection of interviews that Warhol himself gave I ll Be Your Mirror contains more then thirty conversations revealing this unique and important artist Each piece presents a different facet of the Sphinx like Warhol s ever evolving personality Writer Kenneth Goldsmith provides context and provenance for each selection Beginning in 1962 with a notorious interview in which Warhol literally begs the interviewer to put words into his mouth the book covers Warhol s most important artistic period during the 60s As Warhol shifts to filmmaking in the 70s this collection explores his emergence as socialite scene maker and trendsetter his influential Interview magazine and the Studio 54 scene In the 80s his support of young artists like Jean Michel Basquiat his perspective on art history and the growing relationship to technology in his work are shown Finally his return to religious imagery and spirituality are available in an interview conducted just months before his death Including photographs and previous unpublished interviews this collage of Warhol showcases the artist's ability to manipulate, captivate and enrich American culture    Search for a Father Robert Harvey, 1991 Shows how Sartre's ethics can be understood in light of his views on paternity    The Connection, 2004    Filippo Turati and the Religious Question Malcolm Sylvers, 1969

Religion Index Two, 1998    Religion in Postwar China David C. Yu, 1994 This book discusses selected works on Chinese religion in the People's Republic of China PRC published since World War II. The work begins with brief overviews of religion in premodern and modern China first by scholars in China and then as understood by Western scholars. The bulk of the book consists of 1 005 annotated bibliographic entries works by Chinese writers from the PRC and Western writers from East Asia North America and Europe. Though many entries deal with pre 1970 China the emphasis is on the past two decades which have been the most productive in the history of Western publications. The inclusion of some 200 entries for this time period by authors from China makes this an important work for students and scholars in contemporary Chinese religion.

Umbra: Blackworks from the Black Galaxy, 1974    The Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World John L. Esposito, 1995 This unique reference is the first comprehensive encyclopedia dedicated to the institutions, religion, politics and culture in Muslim societies throughout the world. Placing particular emphasis on the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World contains over 750 articles in four volumes. The focus throughout is on the Islamic dimension of the Muslim experience in recent history and background articles ground the information in its historical context and ensure continuity. Entries address political and social action as well as formal texts and emphasis is placed on the practice and theory of Islam in Muslim societies around the globe. Unlike more limited explorations of Islam this work looks at Muslim societies in the Arab heartland as well as in South and Southeast Asia and even in Europe and the Americas. Thus it is an invaluable resource offering extensive comparative and systematic analyses of Islamic beliefs, institutions, movements, practices and peoples on an international scale. Topical categories covered include history and geography, schools of thought, religious beliefs, theology and philosophy, mysticism, religious practice, devotionalism and ritual, religious law, politics, economics, culture and society, and biographies. Alphabetically arranged articles range from brief 500 word essays to major interpretive and synthetic treatments of topics such as the Islamic state, pilgrimage, law, marriage and foreign relations. Related entries cover such topics as social and political movements, women

Muslim minorities human rights Islam in the West and interreligious affairs Truly multidisciplinary this work reflects the breadth and depth of contemporary scholarship in Islamic studies combining the tools of the humanities and social sciences to examine the interrelationship of religion politics and culture in Muslim societies and to explain the changing realities of Muslim life Designed for easy use by both scholars and students the work has an index and an extensive system of cross references that provide easy access to the network of related articles throughout the encyclopedia Entries are written by Muslim and non Muslim scholars from around the world Unique in its focus on the modern Islamic world this encyclopedia is an invaluable reference for anyone concerned with Islam scholars and students of many disciplines government and media analysts who increasingly require an understanding of the Muslim world and interested lay readers who are becoming more and more familiar with Islamic politics and culture

Russian Prose Writers After World War II Christine Rydel,2005

Whether the writers in this period described the war the Great Terror the gulag experience exile repression or simply everyday life in the city or in the country they generally turned to a major theme of Russian literature since the Revolution the fate of the individual human being in a mass state In the literature often the state won due to its power at other times individuals triumphed because of their moral convictions The same can be said of these writers
