Lipis, 1996 Haggadah for Christians Eitan Bar, 2024 JUST RELEASED A Brand New 2024 Release This Haggadah is distinctive for two key reasons Firstly it intertwines the ancient narrative of liberation from Egyptian slavery with the celebration of our spiritual redemption through Messiah Yeshua Jesus Christ Secondly it diverges from the classical Jewish Haggadah by omitting the sections that traditionally express disdain towards Jesus and his followers For example one such passage is the Shefokh chamatkha Pour out Your wrath prayer which is recited towards the end of the Seder This prayer asks God to pour out wrath upon the nations Another example is the section on the Four Sons which includes the story of The Wicked Son This son is portrayed as being rebellious and rejecting the teachings and traditions of the rabbis of Orthodox Judaism Jewish scholars interpret this passage as a criticism of followers of Jesus especially Jewish who did not adhere to rabbinic Jewish practices but rejected and challenged them In keeping with Jewish tradition each generation is encouraged to envision themselves as personally liberated from Egyptian servitude Yet as followers of Jesus our journey extends beyond the sands of ancient Egypt to a spacious upper room in Jerusalem There during the time of Jesus we will symbolically partake in the inauguration of the New Covenant uniting past and present in a profound act of faith and remembrance Accordingly this alternative Haggadah put Yeshua Jesus back in the center of the Passover table making it perfect for Christians who want to celebrate the Passover Seder These adaptations often referred to as Messianic or Christ in the Passover Haggadahs incorporate Christian beliefs into the traditional Passover Seder This allows Christians to connect with the story of Passover while honoring their faith in Jesus as the Messiah and the ultimate Passover Lamb Large Easy to Read Print Premium High Quality Full Color Images Remember Each guest should have their own copy to follow which they can keep as a gift Let Us Break Bread Together Pastor Michael Smith, Rabbi Rami Shapiro, 2005-02-01 Jews have been celebrating the Passover through a special meal called a seder for millennia Jesus himself celebrated the Passover feast with his disciples in what we refer to as The Last Supper In this special book co authored by a rabbi and a pastor we have the unique opportunity to experience an authentic Jewish Passover seder from a distinctively Christian perspective There are many haggadot used in Jewish homes and synagogues but this one offers meaningful insights on how Christians can both learn from Judaism as a means of deepening their Christian faith and better understand the Jewishness of Jesus Always respectful of the differences between Judaism and Christianity this Passover guide provides a complete guide plan and script to a meaningful seder experience a deeper knowledge of the great themes of the Exodus story in combination with Christian insights rich opportunities for a better understanding Lent and Holy Week a fuller knowledge of why Jesus placed such importance on the universal themes of slavery freedom and community around the seder table Explores the rich liturgy of the Passover seder from both the Jewish and Christian traditions without compromising the distinctive beliefs of either faith tradition Smith and Shapiro have given us a model of interfaith cooperation based on their evident respect for one another that contributes to greater mutual understanding A splendid contribution to worship education Timothy George dean of Beeson Divinity School of Samford University executive editor of Christianity Today If Christian churches choose to observe Passover this is the resource they should use a comprehensive but easy to use tool for broadening and deepening their understanding of Passover Jan Turentine Managing Editor Acacia Resources Baptist Center for Ethics

Passover Haggadah for Christians and Jews Margo Leitz, 2016-01-16 Learn More here <http://doaseder.com> Passover or Pesach is the first of seven appointed feasts of the Lord ordained by the Lord to commemorate the departure of the Hebrew nation from Egypt As commanded in the Torah You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days you are to eat unleavened bread as I commanded you at the appointed time in the month Abib for in it you came out of Egypt And they shall not appear before Me empty handed Exodus 23:15 The Torah the first five books of Moses is the written word of God and the instructions and rituals for the holidays were passed down in the oral law Every year in the spring Jews around the world will prepare a seder as a memorial to the original Passover event and in the same prescribed order given at Mt Sinai over 3 000 years ago It is important to God that the teachings and history of the Jewish people be preserved and passed down to all generations As we read through the Haggadah you will notice the introduction of a dash in the spellings of God and Lord According to Jewish law and tradition it was forbidden to erase or discard any written document with the names of our Creator or even speak His Hebrew name Yod He Vav He The word Jehovah is used by Christians to pronounce the four letters of the tetragrammaton and the name Adonai is substituted when reading the Holy Scriptures or Torah The true pronunciation of His Name has been lost With great respect we will reverence His holy name by continuing this tradition The symbolism in the seder meal will remind us that God remembered His people in bondage and He had a plan for their deliverance
