Interrogating Critical Pedagogy Pierre Wilbert Orelus,Rochelle Brock,2014-11-13 Educators teacher practitioners and social activists have successfully used critical pedagogy as a tool to help marginalized students develop awareness and seek alternative solutions to their poor educational and socioeconomic situations However this theory is often criticized as being mostly dominated by privileged white males bringing issues of race and gender to the forefront This volume provides insight on how critical pedagogy can be helpful to scholars and teachers alike in their analysis of racial gender linguistic and political problems It features a wide range of respected scholars who examine the way and the degree to which critical

Statewide Audiovisual Service,1997 Unreconciled Andrea Smith,2019-12-13 In the 1990s many evangelical Christian organizations and church leaders began to acknowledge their long history of racism and launched efforts at becoming more inclusive of people of color While much of this racial reconciliation movement has not directly confronted systemic racism s structural causes there exists a smaller countermovement within evangelicalism primarily led by women of color who are actively engaged in antiracism and social justice struggles In Unreconciled Andrea Smith examines these movements through a critical ethnic studies lens evaluating the varying degrees to which evangelical communities that were founded on white supremacy have addressed racism Drawing on evangelical publications sermons and organization statements as well as ethnographic fieldwork and participation in evangelical events Smith shows how evangelicalism is largely unable to effectively challenge white supremacy due to its reliance upon discourses of whiteness At the same time the work of progressive evangelical women of color not only demonstrates that evangelical Christianity can be an unexpected place in which to find theoretical critique and social justice organizing but also shows how critical ethnic studies interventions can be applied broadly across political and religious divides outside the academy Film and Video Finder, 1997 ,1997 Charisma and Christian Life ,1996 InfoWorld ,1988 Library Journal ,1984 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Forgiven Charles E.
