

Mahatma Gandhi and his followers instill the confidence in the people from all the diversities that their unity is the foremost requirement of freedom and independence. Our unity worked and the British rule ended on 15th of August 1947. I take this opportunity to salute these freedom fighters who put their lives at stake for the country and lived up to the spirit of unity.

We are so lucky that our forefathers have given us a land of peace and happy where we can sleep whole night without fear and enjoy whole day in our school or home. Our country is developing very fast in the field of technology, education, sports, finance and various other fields which were almost impossible before freedom. India is one of the countries rich in nuclear power. We are going ahead by actively participating in the sports like Olympics, Commonwealth games and Asian games. We have full rights to chose our government and enjoy largest democracy in the world. Yes, we are free and have complete freedom however we should not understand ourselves free of responsibilities towards our country. As being responsible citizens of the country, we should be always ready to handle any emergency condition in our country.

Patriotic Speech On Independence Fil:

Film in Contemporary Southeast Asia David C. L. Lim, Hiroyuki Yamamoto, 2012-03-12 This book discusses contemporary film in all the main countries of Southeast Asia and the social practices and ideologies which films either represent or oppose. It shows how film acquires signification through cultural interpretation and how film also serves as a site of contestations between social and political agents seeking to promote challenge or erase certain meanings, messages or ideas from public circulation. A unique feature of the book is that it focuses as much on films as it does on the societies from which these films emerge; it considers the reasons for film makers taking the positions they take, the positions and counter positions taken, the response of different communities and the extent to which these interventions are connected to global flows of culture and capital. The wide range of subjects covered include documentaries as political interventions in Singapore, political film makers' collectives in the Philippines and films about prostitution in Cambodia and patriotism in Malaysia and the Chinese in Indonesia. The book analyses films from Burma, Laos, Cambodia, Vietnam, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia and the Philippines across a broad range of productions such as mainstream and independent features across genres, for example comedy, patriotic, political, historical, genres alongside documentary, classic and diasporic films. Chapter 7 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license.
