Swift Studies ,2006      English Literature in Transition, 1880-1920 ,1994      Literature in Contexts Peter Barry,2007 In the 1980s the study of the study of literary theory eclipsed the study of the literary text Today we are told we are post theory Yet as literary text emerged from the shadow of theory it was eclipsed all over again by the study of context Historicist contextualization became the dominant orientation in literary studies and this not quite New Historicism spread in turn through period after period Literature in Contexts seeks to problematize the very notion of context which has remained stubbornly un theorized and un examined It puts forward a distinction between deep and broad context and argues that we need to counter the prevalence of the latter if literary studies is to avoid becoming a minor branch of history      Choice ,2008      A Jane Austen Encyclopedia Paul Poplawski,1998-06-30 Through chronologies alphabetically arranged entries and extensive bibliographies this encyclopedia provides detailed and comprehensive information about Austen s life works and critical reputation      The Social Context of Modern English Literature Malcolm Bradbury,1971-01-01      Literary Research and the British Romantic Era Peggy Keeran,Jennifer Bowers,2005-10-20 The British Romantic era ca 1775 1830 was a time of contradictions of growth and of diversity in all aspects of English life Romanticism originally referred to the works of six male poets Wordsworth Blake Shelley Coleridge Keats and Byron However current scholarly attempts to demonstrate that the period encompasses a rich and varied range of poets essayists and novelists of both genders have caused the definition to come under debate Not limiting itself to these six figures Literary Research and the British Romantic Era discusses English Scottish Irish and Welsh resources for both primary and secondary research within the Romantic Era including general literary research guides union library catalogs print and online bibliographies manuscripts and archives microfilm and digitization projects eighteenth and nineteenth century journals and newspapers contemporary reviews and electronic texts journals and Web resources Each chapter addresses the best methods to extract relevant information from the research tools employed enabling scholars to find relevant materials The strengths and weakness of core and specialized electronic and print research tools and standard search techniques are also examined      English Country Life in the Barsetshire Novels of Angela Thirkell Laura Collins,1994-11-30 After the publication in 1932 of Angela Thirkell s first Barsetshire novel her fans eagerly awaited a new book in the series and they were rewarded annually for the next 27 years Drawing upon the entire body of Barsetshire novels set in Trollope s imaginary county whose seat Barchester is a cathedral town Laura Collins shows Angela Thirkell s larger purposes in chronicling the daily lives of the rural English English Country Life demonstrates Thirkell s conviction that loyalty to family county and country is the essential bond that strengthens middle class culture her close acquaintance with the English countryside her high regard for the wit and wisdom of its people and her firm conviction that the strong family unit is the backbone of the nation are recurrently illustrated in the Barsetshire series Collins traces the development of representative county families and their responses to the forces of political and economic decline The book conveys Thirkell s mastery of detail in recreating life on the county s estates and farms and in towns and villages reflecting the cultural changes forced upon all social classes by the two World Wars and their aftermath Collins shows how Thirkell's own life is reflected in her county chronicles Perhaps most significantly Collins believes Thirkell's own experiences as a daughter and as a mother to three sons is reflected throughout the novels revealing largely in hindsight the touching ironies as well as the comedy of these relations In the course of these narratives her sharp sense of human nature is seen at its best when she introduces readers to the many babies toddlers and adolescents who grow up in Barsetshire Making extensive use of the series Collins demonstrates convincingly that Thirkell presents an authentic record of upper middle class English country life For public libraries and research collections where Angela Thirkell's novels are read enjoyed and studied     Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001     Promptings of Desire Paul Poplawski,1993-06-21

Through his art D H Lawrence exhorted people to recognize their potential for creative change and to energize it toward a more fulfilling mode of existence Author Paul Poplawski seeks to define Lawrence's concept of creativity and explores its use as a central structuring principle of his ethical metaphysical and aesthetic thought Viewed in relation to his basic religious beliefs the concept of creativity provides us with an integrated perspective on his art Poplawski considers biographical elements of Lawrence's religious formation and traces the path of transmittal of these ideas into the early fiction and particularly The Rainbow He then continues to demonstrate how religious views and aesthetic theory coalesce in the later works He also engages critical dialogue by investigating counter creative trends of elitism and sexism in the corpus
