Reading the newspaper, they become aware of a young woman seeking a place as a paying guest or lodger. To supplement their income, they respond to the advertisement and meet the prospective tenant named Louise Derrick, who is in need of a place to live due to disagreements with her immediate family. Louise, who is poorly educated and bad tempered, is being romantically pursued by two men: Mr. Bowling, who is courting Louise's stepsister Cecily, and Tom Cobb.

The Paying Guest George Gissing, 2010-01 The Paying Guest George R. Gissing, 2018-06-19 The Paying Guest George Gissing George Robert Gissing was born on November 22nd 1857 in Wakefield, Yorkshire. He was educated at Back Lane School in Wakefield. Gissing loved school. He was enthusiastic with a thirst for learning and always diligent. By the age of ten, he was reading Dickens a lifelong hero. In 1872, Gissing won a scholarship to Owens College. Whilst there, Gissing worked hard but remained solitary. Unfortunately, he had run short of funds and stole from his fellow students. He was arrested, prosecuted, found guilty, and expelled. He was sentenced to a month's hard labour in 1876. On release, he decided to start over. In September 1876, he travelled to the United States. Here, he wrote short stories for the Chicago Tribune and other newspapers. On his return home, he was ready for novels. Gissing self-published his first novel, but it failed to sell. His second was acquired but never published. His writing career was static. Something had to change. And it did. By 1884, The Unclassed was published. Now, everything he wrote was published. Both Isabel Clarendon and Demos appeared in 1886. He mined the lives of the working class as diligently as any capitalist. In 1889, Gissing used the proceeds from the sale of The Nether World to go to Italy. This trip formed the basis for his 1890 work, The Emancipated. Gissing's works began to command higher payments. New Grub Street (1891) brought a fee of 250. Short stories followed, and in 1895, three novellas were published: Eve's Ransom, The Paying Guest, and Sleeping Fires. Gissing was careful to keep up with the changing attitudes of his audience. Unfortunately, he was also diagnosed as suffering from emphysema. The last years of his life were spent as a semi-invalid in France, but he continued to write. In 1899, The Crown

Working Woman, and Urban Culture Emma Liggins,2017-09-29 George Gissing's work reflects his observations of fin de siècle London life. Influenced by the French naturalist school his realist representations of urban culture testify to the significance of the city for the development of new class and gender identities particularly for women. Liggins's study which considers standard texts such as The Odd Women New Grub Street and The Nether World as well as lesser known short works examines Gissing's fiction in relation to the formation of these new identities focusing specifically on debates about the working woman. From the 1880s onward a new genre of urban fiction increasingly focused on work as a key aspect of the modern woman's identity elements of which were developed in the New Woman fiction of the 1890s. Showing his fascination with the working woman and her narrative potential Gissing portrays women from a wide variety of occupations ranging from factory girls actresses prostitutes and shop girls to writers teachers clerks and musicians. Liggins argues that by placing the working woman at the center of his narratives rather than at the margins Gissing made an important contribution to the development of urban fiction which increasingly reflected current debates about women's presence in the city.

The Paying Guest George Gissing,2020-05-21 Emmeline took the matter seriously but being a young woman of some discretion did not voice all her thoughts. The rent was heavy so was the cost of Clarence's season ticket. Against this they had set the advantage of the fine air of Sutton so good for the child and for the mother both vastly better in health since they quitted London. Moreover the remoteness of their friends favoured economy they could easily decline invitations and need not often issue them. They had a valid excuse for avoiding public entertainments an expense so often imposed by mere fashion. The house was roomy the garden delightful Clarence good fellow might be sincere in his wish for her to have companionship at the same time this advertisement had probably appealed to him in another way.
