Africa Reimagined Hlumelo Biko,2021-01-15 Steve Biko argued that the most potent weapon in the hands of the oppressor is the mind of the oppressed Hlumelo Biko unpacks this in its practical import and shows how changing the situation can transform Africa The Rule of Law and Delivering Justice in Africa ,2007 The African Studies Companion Hans M. Zell,2006 This is an freely accessible version that has not been updated since July 2009 So some links will not work Dynamic Industrial Policy in Africa United Nations. Economic Commission for Africa,2014 For millions of Africans growth is yet to translate into jobs and better living conditions Africa s largely commodity driven growth has not been matched by the much needed structural change that can lead to economic transformation employment and reduced poverty Market failures necessitate industrial policy interventions Yet in the absence of the right processes and institutions good industrial policies will fail Indeed weak institutions and poor policy design have hindered industrial policy This report gives a framework for getting the policy process right to foster industrialization It uses 11 country case studies to assess the critical ingredients for spurring industrialization innovative institutions effective processes and flexible mechanisms and structural transformation Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and acitvities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations Items & Issues ,2003 Domestic and Regional Environmental Laws and Policies in Africa Jean-Claude N. Ashukem,Semie M. Sama,2023-11-10 This book explores African domestic and regional responses and approaches to environmental protection and sustainability Written by African experts the collection consists of five parts covering the whole of Africa It provides broad coverage of specific themes including environmental constitutionalism climate change gender and the environment wildlife trade environmental justice and human displacement The key aims are first to explore theoretical and empirical studies to interrogate and provide clarity on academic discourse on how and whether environmental human rights approaches and policy implications have effectively enhanced environmental protection and sustainability at African domestic levels Second to investigate and present innovative solutions on how African domestic legal regimes deal with environmental justice natural resources governance refugees environmental rights and climate induced displaced persons Finally to propose innovative legal and institutionalised solutions to Africa s ecological realities by determining the legal and regulatory gaps on environmental human rights issues on the continent The collection will be a valuable resource for researchers academics and policymakers in human rights law environmental law political science ecology and conservation environmental management disaster management and development studies     A World of Giving Patricia L Rosenfield,2014-11-04 The age of international philanthropy is upon us Today many of America s most prominent foundations support institutions or programs abroad but few have been active on the global stage for as long as Carnegie Corporation of New York A World of Giving provides a thorough objective examination of the international activities of Carnegie Corporation one of America s oldest and most respected philanthropic institutions which was created by steel baron Andrew Carnegie in 1911 to support the advancement and diffusion of knowledge and understanding The book explains in detail the grantmaking process aimed at promoting understanding across cultures and research in many nations across the world A World of Giving highlights the vital importance of Carnegie Corporation s mission in guiding its work and the role of foundation presidents as thought and action leaders The presidents trustees and later on staff members are the human element that drives philanthropy and they are the lens through which to view the inner workings of philanthropic institutions with all of their accompanying strengths and limitations especially when embarking on international activities It also does not shy away from controversy including early missteps in Canada race and poverty issues in the 1930s and 1980s related to South Africa promotion of area studies affected by the McCarthy Era the critique of technical assistance in developing countries the century long failure to achieve international understanding on the part of Americans and recent critiques by Australian historians of the Corporation s nation transforming work there This is a comprehensive review of one foundation s work on the international stage as well as a model for how philanthropy can be practiced in a deeply interconnected world where conflicts abound but progress can be spurred by thoughtful forward looking institutions following humanistic principles
