Starosta, 2015-11-24 In Marx's Capital Method and Revolutionary Subjectivity Guido Starosta develops a materialist inquiry into the social and historical determinations of revolutionary subjectivity Through a methodologically minded critical reconstruction of the Marxian critique of political economy from the early writings up to the Grundrisse and Capital this study shows that the outcome of the historical movement of the objectified form of social mediation which has turned into the very alienated subject of social life i.e. capital is to develop as its own immanent determination the constitution of the self abolishing working class as a revolutionary subject A crucial element in this intellectual endeavour is the focus on the intrinsic connection between the specifically dialectical form of social science and its radical transformative content
