Book Czechs Germans 1848 2004 Question Transformation:

Czechs and Germans 1848 - 2004, 2013 Exile in London Vít Smetana, Kathleen Geaney, 2018-02-01 During World War II London experienced not just the Blitz and the arrival of continental refugees but also an influx of displaced foreign governments Drawing together renowned historians from nine countries the United Kingdom Germany the Netherlands Belgium Poland Slovenia the Czech Republic and Slovakia this book explores life in exile as experienced by the governments of Czechoslovakia and other occupied nations who found refuge in the British capital Through new archival research and fresh historical interpretations chapters delve into common characteristics and differences in the origin and structure of the individual governments in exile in an attempt to explain how they dealt with pressing social and economic problems at home while abroad how they were able to influence crucial allied diplomatic negotiations the relative importance of armies strategic commodities and equipment that particular governments in exile were able to offer to the Allied war effort important wartime propaganda and early preparations for addressing postwar minority issues After Memory Matthias Schwartz, Nina Weller, Heike Winkel, 2021-06-08 Even seventy five years after the end of World War II the commemorative cultures surrounding the War and the Holocaust in Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe are anything but fixed The fierce debates on how to deal with the past among the newly constituted nation states in these regions have already received much attention by scholars in cultural and memory studies The present volume posits that literature as a medium can help us understand the shifting attitudes towards World War II and the Holocaust in post Communist Europe in recent years These shifts point to new commemorative cultures shaping up after memory Contemporary literary representations of World War II and the Holocaust in Eastern Europe do not merely extend or replace older practices of remembrance and testimony but reflect on these now defunct or superseded narratives New narratives of remembrance are conditioned by a fundamentally new social and political context one that emerged from the devaluation of socialist commemorative rituals and as a response to the loss of private and family memory narratives The volume offers insights into the diverse literatures of Eastern Europe and their ways of depicting the area's contested heritage Czech Law in Historical Contexts Jan Kuklík, 2015 The legal system of the present day Czech Republic would not be understood properly without sufficient knowledge of its historical roots and evolution This book deals with the development of Czech law from its initial origins as a form of Slavic law to its current position reflecting the influence of the legal systems of neighbouring countries and that of Roman law The reader can see how a legal system originally based on custom developed into written and codified law Czech law was fully dependent upon developments within the Luxemburg Jagiellonian and primarily Habsburg monarchies although some features remained autonomous The 20th century is particularly important in the development of the Czech state and law of today namely due to the establishment of an independent Czechoslovakia in 1918 and its split in 1992 giving rise to the independent identities of the Czech Republic and the Slovak Republic It was a century encompassing periods of democratic as well as totalitarian regimes political ideological economic and social changes stemming from such transformations were projected into and reflected in the system of Czechoslovak and Czech law It can therefore serve as a case study for researchers interested in the transition of democratic legal systems into totalitarian regimes and vice versa Southeast European Studies in a Globalizing World Christian Promitzer, Siegfried Gruber, Harald Heppner, 2014 Since the early 1990s Southeast European studies have undergone profound changes being shaped by the wars of Yugoslav succession and the ramifications of post socialism coupled with democratic deficiencies which characterize most of Southeast Europe The countries which it encompasses rest uneasily on the periphery of the developed variant of Western capitalism but they have nonetheless to contend with the challenges of adjusting to a market economy The imprint of these contexts on academic research has led to a discussion of the role of Southeast European studies It is the task of this volume to summarize and raise awareness of this discussion Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 16 Subject European Studies Sociology Politics Revolutionary Europe 1780-1850 Jonathan Sperber, 2017-04-21 Jonathan Sperber s Revolutionary Europe 1780 1850 is a history of Europe in the age of the French Revolution from the end of the old regime to the outcome of the revolutions of 1848 Fully revised and updated this second edition provides a continent wide history of the key political events and social transformation that took place within this turbulent period extending as far as their effects within the European colonial society of the Caribbean Key features include analyses of the movement from society s old regime of orders to a civil society of property owners the varied consequences of rapid population increase and the spread of market relations in the economy and the upshot of these changes for political life from violent revolutions and warfare to dramatic reforms and peaceful mass movements a lively account of the events of the period and a thorough analysis of the political cultural and socioeconomic transformations that shaped them a look into the lives of ordinary people amidst the social and economic developments of the time a range of maps depicting the developments in Europe s geographic scope between 1789 and 1848 including for the 1820 1830 and 1848 revolutions Revolutionary Europe 1780 1850 is the perfect introduction for students of the history of the French Revolution and the history of Europe more broadly Women as Essential Citizens in the Czech National Movement Dáša Francíková, 2017-05-31 This study uses the Czech national movement in the Austrian Empire between the late 1820s and the late 1850s to examine the complex set of social physical physiological and moral requirements through which women became crucial social and political actors responsible for the existence of modern national communities Situated within the larger frameworks of public and private spheres contemporary Czech discussions of the positionality of women and an understanding of the categories of gender and woman as fluid concepts this book analyzes how Czech nationalists in relation to and in comparison with other nineteenth century nationalist movements proposed that women become the central agents of the process to guarantee the continuity of the nation Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Central Europe Luka Ivan Jukic, 2025-08-14 What is Central Europe Where do its borders lie Does it even exist Attempts to define it usually yield more questions than answers But perhaps the wrong questions are being asked Luka Ivan Jukic disentangles the enigma of Central Europe through its history of birth death and rebirth Countries like Poland Croatia and even Ukraine proudly proclaim themselves part of this region and so part of Western civilisation But the term originally described an unrecognisably different world one formed in the eighteenth century by the unique inheritance of the House of Habsburg across a decentralised Germany and a sprawling Danubian realm by the rise of standard High German and by an intermediate position within a continent defined by the advanced West and backwards East Amid the displacement and destruction of the world wars and their aftermath this extraordinary civilisation was shattered reduced to the frontline of a global Cold War Its unexpected reincarnation in the 1980s as an ideological antidote to the Soviet East spawned myths and polemics but little clarity Yet Central Europe still seems to feature in every crisis today from Russian aggression to European disunity Why does it remain such a powerful political idea in our times Slavic Review ,2004 American quarterly of Soviet and East European studies varies Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Without Remorse T. Mills Kelly,2006 This book examines the rise of Czech radical nationalism at a time of maturing mass political mobilization and intense social and political conflict As the masses gained access to the political system across Europe ethnic and class divisions increased the potential for trouble Popular dissatisfaction with rapid but uneven modernization of Habsburg society and preexisting inter ethnic tension led the Czech radical to develop a new and sometimes violent political style that upset the relative unity of Czech political life By 1914 these radicals were successfully challenging their larger and more entrenched rivals for a dominant political position They also exported their political style to other parts of the region most notably to the territories with large Croatian and Slovenian populations thereby contributing to the radicalization of these national movements as well The history of the Czech National Socialist party and its allies provides compelling evidence of the problematic nature of democratization in such a charged environment and reveals how Czech radicalism was a part of broader European developments Jahrbücher für Geschichte Osteuropas ,1936
