At Cold War's End Central Intelligence Agency, Benjamin B. Fischer, 2005 The Center for the Study of Intelligence CSI of the Central Intelligence Agency and the George W Bush Center for Presidential Studies at Texas A M University co sponsored a conference on US Intelligence and the End of the Cold War on the Texas A M University campus at College Station from 18 to 20 November 1999 As a contribution to the conference CSI prepared a compendium of newly declassified US intelligence documents covering the years 1989 1991 This period encompassed events in the USSR and Eastern Europe that transformed the postwar world and much of the 20th century s geopolitical landscape It was a time when the tempo of history accelerated so rapidly that as one historian put it events seemed to be moving beyond human control if not human comprehension Benjamin B Fischer of CIA s History Staff selected edited and wrote the preface to the National Intelligence Estimates and other intelligence assessments included in this companion volume In conjunction with the conference the Intelligence Community will release to the National Archives and Records Administration NARA the records reprinted in this compendium and those listed in the Appendix The declassification and release of these documents marks a new stage in the CIA's commitment to openness The Agency has only rarely declassified and made available to the public and to scholars Cold War records of such recent vintage The new release complements and supplements the previous declassification of more than 550 National Intelligence Estimates NIEs and Special National Intelligence Estimates SNIEs on the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe from 1946 to 1985 CIA continues to review and declassify finished intelligence on these countries These records are available at NARA's Archives II facility in College Park Maryland in Records Group 263 Central Intelligence Agency Records Two of the documents reprinted in this volume originated with CIA's Office of Soviet Analysis SOVA Both have been cited in accounts of US Soviet relations during the Bush administration and have been discussed elsewhere The complete texts appear here for the first time Mr Fischer tried to identify and release the most important analysis available for this period His selection is comprehensive Some of the documents especially those on military strategic subjects were only partially declassified since they contain data from still sensitive sources and methods Readers should understand however that even the portions reprinted here contain information that until recently was highly classified We want to note in addition that we have selected only estimates and assessments prepared during the Bush administration We realize that in some cases estimates and other forms of finished intelligence issued before 1989 may have addressed some of the same issues and even reached some of the same conclusions as those that came later but our focus is exclusively on what was written during 1989-1991 Mr Fischer and I would like to thank all those responsible for making this compendium and the conference possible Above all we would like to thank former President George Bush and his staff for enthusiastically endorsing the conference and Director of Central Intelligence George J Tenet for his support and cooperation We also would like to thank CIA's Executive Director David W Carey for his assistance in releasing the documents Closer to home we want to thank CIA's Office of Information Management headed by Edmund Cohen and in particular James Oliver chief of the Historical Review Program Howard Stoertz John Vogel and James Noren We also would like to thank readers who took the time to examine this volume in draft and to make comments and Michael Warner Deputy Chief of the History Staff who worked closely with us on this project Gerald K Haines Chief Historian September 1999

What Is at Stake Now Mikhail Gorbachev, 2020-09-28 Thirty years after the end of the Cold War world peace is at risk again The United States has withdrawn from the disarmament treaty with Russia Europe is disintegrating China is surging forward and a wave of nationalism and populism is destabilizing established political institutions and endangering hard won liberties Moreover the coronavirus pandemic has brought into sharp relief the fragility of the global order and the speed with which it can slide into chaos In view of this dangerous and unpredictable state of affairs Mikhail Gorbachev the last great statesman of the 1989 revolution has written this short book to warn us of the grave risks we now face and to urge us all political leaders and citizens alike to take action to address them He focuses on the big challenges of our time such as the renewal of the arms race and the growing risks of nuclear war the new tension between Russia and the West the global environmental crisis the global threat of diseases and epidemics the rise of populism and the decline of democracy He argues that self serving policies and narrow minded politics aimed at the pursuit of national interests are taking the place of political principles and overshadowing the vision of a free and just world for all peoples He offers his view of where Russia is heading and he urges political leaders in the West to recognize that re establishing trust between Russia and the West requires the courage of true leadership and a commitment to genuine dialogue and understanding on both sides Now more than ever the responses to the great challenges we face cannot be purely national in character but must be based on a collaborative effort in which political leaders put aside their differences and work together to advance the human security of all
