Navigating Complexity in International Development Danny Burns, Stuart Worsley, 2015 Drip Irrigation for Agriculture Jean-Philippe Venot, Marcel Kuper, Margreet Zwarteveen, 2017-07-06 Initially associated with hi tech irrigated agriculture drip irrigation is now being used by a much wider range of farmers in emerging and developing countries This book documents the enthusiasm spread and use of drip irrigation systems by smallholders but also some disappointments and disillusion faced in the global South It explores and explains under which conditions it works for whom and with what effects The book deals with drip irrigation behind the scenes showcasing what largely remain untold stories Most research on drip irrigation use plot level studies to demonstrate the technology s ability to save water or improve efficiencies and use a narrow and rather prescriptive engineering or economic language They tend to be grounded in a firm belief in the technology and focus on the identification of ways to improve or better realize its potential The technology also figures prominently in poverty alleviation or agricultural modernization narratives figuring as a tool to help smallholders become more innovative entrepreneurial and business minded Instead of focusing on its potential this book looks at drip irrigation in use making sense of what it does from the perspectives of the farmers who use it and of the development workers and agencies policymakers private companies local craftsmen engineers extension agents or researchers who engage with it for a diversity of reasons and to realize a multiplicity of objectives While anchored in a sound engineering understanding of the design and operating principles of the technology the book extends the analysis beyond engineering and hydraulics to understand drip irrigation as a sociotechnical phenomenon that not only changes the way water is supplied to crops but also transforms agricultural farming systems and even how society is organized The book provides field evidence from a diversity of interdisciplinary case studies in sub Saharan Africa the Mediterranean Latin America and South Asia thus revealing some of the untold stories of drip irrigation Stewarding Sustainability Transformations Petra Kuenkel, 2018-12-20 In the context of the world s pressing sustainability challenges this new Report to the Club of Rome presents a novel approach to navigating collaborative change in partnerships between governments research institutions corporations and civil society activists With reference to the 17 Sustainable Development Goals and the Planetary Boundaries it introduces the theory and practice of Collective Stewardship as a management tool that respects the integrity of human and natural systems Drawing on the work of transdisciplinary scientific scholars and seasoned sustainability practitioners it shows how transformative change can be built on life s inherent tendency to generate patterns of vitality and resilience This ground breaking monograph shows workable pathways to stewarding patterns of aliveness in social and ecological systems at all levels of the global society As a highly regarded author and expert in collective leadership Petra Kuenkel inspires academics and practitioners alike to explore new routes towards co creating responsible futures in the era of the Anthropocene where the human footprint has begun to change the course of planetary evolution She invites decision makers researchers planners and social activists to become stewards of systems patterns enhance their collaborative competencies and guide life enhancing socio ecological interaction at scale The conceptual architecture the author elaborates builds transformation literacy and boils down to a practical guidance for planning and implementing interventions across all sectors of society It helps bring about change through a deliberate combination of enlivening narratives empowering metrics enabling processes multi level governance guiding regulations and life supporting innovation This comprehensive book sets a new direction in the field of sustainability transformations and will become a foundation for planning collective action and achieving impact at scale

A Theology of International Development Thia Cooper,2020-02-05 Religion and development have been intertwined since development s beginnings yet faith based aid and development agencies consistently fail to consider how their theology and practice intersect This book offers a Christian theology of development with practical solutions to bridge the gap and return to truly faith based policies and practices Development aims to raise the living standard of the world s poor mainly through small scale projects that increase economic growth A theology of liberation provided a critique to development practice but a specific theology of development is still lacking and many faith based aid agencies have failed to adapt their practice In applying theological thinking to development the author argues that aid agencies need to address the entrenchment of unequal power relations and embrace a holistic notion of development defined by the needs of those most marginalized instead of by a focus on economic growth Development organisations need to consider the distinction between charity and justice and to empower people in the Global South paying particular attention to the intersections of race class sexuality religion and the environment Overall this book is a powerful call to upend development practice as it currently exists and to return faith based organizations to following Christian practices It will be an important read for religion and development researchers practitioners and students

Action Learning and Action Research Ortrun Zuber-Skerritt,Lesley Wood,2019-03-11 Action Learning and Action Research deepens understanding and contributes to new knowledge about the theory practice and processes of Action Learning AL and Action Research It clarifies what constitutes AL AR in its many forms and what it is not

The SAGE Handbook of Participatory Research and Inquiry Danny Burns,Jo Howard,Sonia M. Ospina,2021-08-04 The handbook covers pioneering new participatory research techniques including methods that can be operationalised at scale approaches to engaging the poorest and most marginalised and ways of harnessing technologies to increase the scope of participation amongst others

Ragged Trousered NGOs Charles Buxton,2019-05-17 Ragged Trousered NGOs is a compelling first hand account of the NGO sector and wider civil society over the past 40 years examining how and why people take collective action and engage in social development projects The book explores different organisational and methodological aspects of NGO work and social action asking what was possible to achieve at a grass roots level at different times in different economic and political contexts in the East and West Adopting a critical perspective the author argues that social action continues to play a vital and varied role and yet it struggles to challenge deep rooted power relations and traditional forms of behaviour in today's unequal world. In particular, the book draws on examples from the former Soviet Union in transition and the UK's voluntary sector over the last 40 years with a view to challenging Eurocentric views about organisations and communities. The analysis adopts a Gramscian view of hegemony and an internationalist and anti-war position on key issues arising in recent armed conflicts and the new cold war with Russia. The book concludes by addressing the challenges for development workers, noting the precarious nature of NGO work despite its many achievements and suggesting ways in which social activists can pick up more strength and support. This book's practical perspective on progressive forms of organisational management will be of considerable interest to civil society and NGO development workers as well as to researchers and students in the fields of international development, politics, sociology and regional studies.

Untangling the Complexities of Universality Law as Technology Advances Brutus Jentzen Hunder, 2023-08-23 Seminar paper from the year 2023 in the subject Law Media Multimedia Law Copyright grade A Near East University Graduate Institute course International Law language English abstract In today's interconnected world, technology has become an integral part of our daily lives, transcending borders and reshaping societies on a global scale. As the rapid advancements in technology continue to transform various industries and sectors, it is crucial to comprehend the complexities of the laws and regulations surrounding its universality. This paper delves into the complications that arise as technology rapidly increases globally, exploring the challenges of navigating legal boundaries, harmonizing global standards, protecting intellectual property rights, ensuring privacy and data protection, addressing cybersecurity concerns, and providing insights into achieving universal laws that can effectively govern and accommodate the rapidly evolving technological landscape. By understanding the legal implications of universality, we can foster a balanced and inclusive environment that promotes innovation, accessibility, and protection for all.
