Waiting for the Resistance Sylvia Lawson, 2012 Combining elements of fiction history

reportage and analysis Sylvia Lawson examines the way the spirit of wartime resistance resurfaced in Paris in the insurrection of May 1968 when a rare unity of intellectuals and industrial workers woke a complacent society She chronicles moments of resistance the story of intrepid Russian journalist Anna Politkovskaya who was murdered for her opposition to the Russian oppression of Chechnya the highly contentious Northern Territory Intervention and Aboriginal dispossession East Timorese and West Papuan resistance to Indonesian domination Resistance is about more than protest in the streets it s about writing and art making music and filming and not least about the way ordinary people keep going As the Arab Spring unfolds and the Occupy Wall Street initiative has spread round the world a resistant tradition has been actively inherited the right to protest and rebel against greed and injustice to claim public space to recreate the active convivial city
