Jidenna Classic Man:

When Music Takes Over in Film Anna K. Windisch, Claus Tieber, Phil Powrie, 2023-05-02 This open access collection deals with musical moments in film as one of the most pivotal and compelling issues of current film music research. Musical moments as defined by Amy Herzog occur when a musical number inverts the normal relationship between the image track and the soundtrack in a film in such a way that what we see is determined by what we hear. As one potential approach this definition provokes a variety of perspectives to investigate the disruptive potential of these moments and numbers as a creative device in the production of audiovisual narratives. In this sense the book responds to a need for an anthology that introduces students as well as scholars of cinema musicology, media studies and cultural studies more broadly to recent discourses in film music scholarship. The volume includes contributions by early career researchers as well as by established experts in the fields of musicology, film studies, media studies and cultural studies, promoting cross disciplinary collaboration in film music research.

Adaobi's Tale Angela N. Mata, 2025-07-17 A MODERN DAY AFRICAN FAIRYTALE A young Igbo princess believes that the descendant of an African man enslaved in the Georgia Sea Islands is her reincarnated lover from another time and place

Moonlight Maria Flood, 2021-09-30 This book helps readers understand Moonlight's profound political and social importance, the innovative technical choices adopted by director Barry Jenkins and the film's adoption and disruption of traditional coming of age themes through the specific prism of Chiron's childhood and youth. Moonlight (2016) is an intensely moving and poetically rendered coming of age story about a young gay Black boy Chiron. Highly praised by both critics and audiences internationally, it garnered a surprise Best Picture win at the 2017 Academy Awards, enshrining its significance within a global cinematic canon. This book provides an account of how Moonlight can be situated in relation to African American youth films, contemporary queer cinema and its appeal to the youth market and representations of non-normative childhood and adolescence. It analyses the reception of Moonlight in terms of its form and profound emotional impact on spectators, offering new visions of African American boyhoods while also contributing an extended exploration of the social and political context of the film in relation to Obama, Trump and diversity in filmmaking. Highlighting to students and scholars the powerful emotional pull of Moonlight and why it is a highly significant film, this book is ideal for those interested in critical race studies, queer theory, youth cinema, African American cinema and LGBTQ cinema.

Cities and Cinema Barbara Mennel,2019-05-13 The second edition of Cities and Cinema provides an updated survey of films about cities from their significance for modernity at the beginning of the twentieth century to the contemporary relationship between virtual reality and urban space The book demonstrates the importance of the filmic depiction of capitals for national cinemas in the twentieth century and analyzes the transnational transfer of cinematic images surrounding global cities in the twenty first century Cities and Cinema covers the different facets of the cinematic depiction of cities It rehearses distinct methodologies and offers a survey of the history of the cinematic city The book also deepens our understanding of tropes and narrative conventions that shape films about urban settings and that reflect the transformation of cities throughout the twentieth and twenty first centuries Beginning with a discussion of the Weimar street film it analyzes how the city film defined modernity The book outlines the sociological context and the aesthetic features of so called film noir made in 1940s Hollywood and depicting Los Angeles Paris became the site for the development of auteur cinema which repeatedly depicts characters moving through the city Tokyo took up noir to signal modern crime. The volume delineates how filmic genres such as science fiction comment on the present by imagining future forms of urban living. After analyzing how cinema captures the relationship between sexual identity and urban anonymity, migration and urban space and marginalized ethnic and sexual identity in ghetto films, the book emphasizes transnational dynamics and global cities in the twenty first century. Its conclusion points to the increasing virtual mediation of cities with new media. Cities and Cinema offers a historical overview of the development of films about cities and a theoretical approach to the intersection of urban studies and film studies. This title is designed as a textbook primarily for second year undergraduate students in Film Media studies, Urban studies as well as Geography and Planning.
