Democracy's Edge Frances Moore Lappe, 2005-10-28 Three out of five Americans both Republicans and Democrats feel our country is headed in the wrong direction America is at the edge a critical place at which we can either renew and revitalize or give in and lose that most precious American ideal democracy and along with it the freedom fairness and opportunities it assures Democracy's Edge is a rousing battle cry that we can and must act now From Jefferson to Eisenhower presidents from both parties have warned us of the danger of letting a closed narrow group of business and government officials concentrate power over our lives Yet today a small and unrepresentative group of people is making vital decisions for all of us But this crisis is only a symptom Lapp argues It's a symptom of thin democracy something done to us or for us not by or with us Such democracy is always at risk of being stolen by private interests or extremist groups left and right But there is a solution The answer says Lapp is Living Democracy a powerful yet often invisible citizens revolution surging in communities across America It's not random disjointed activism but the emergence of a new historical stage of democracy in which Americans realize that democracy isn't something we have but something we do Either we live it or lose it says Lapp
