Michael Graves Ian Volner, 2017-10-24 One of the most prominent and prolific designers and architects of the late twentieth century Michael Graves is best known for his popular product designs including the world famous Alessi whistling bird teakettle and controversial buildings such as the Portland Building in Oregon Humana Building in Kentucky and Dolphin and Swan Hotels at Walt Disney World Florida Graves was widely seen as the leading voice of postmodernist architecture which reintroduced human scale color and sometimes playful forms into the stark white vocabulary of modernism. Following a devastating illness that paralyzed him from the chest down Graves became a tireless designer and advocate of improved health care products and facilities before his sudden death in 2015. Shortly before this he began a series of interviews with journalist Ian Volner which form the basis of this biography of a remarkable designer. Volner also conducted numerous interviews with Graves s family patrons colleagues and friends. What emerges is a meticulously researched anecdote rich human story as well as a primer on the American architecture scene of the past sixty years and a portrait of a man whose deep passion for his art brought pleasure to millions
