Archetypes and Motifs in Folklore and Literature: A Handbook Jane Garry, Hasan El-Shamy, 2017-07-05 This is an authoritative presentation and discussion of the most basic thematic elements universally found in folklore and literature. The reference provides a detailed analysis of the most common archetypes or motifs found in the folklore of selected communities around the world. Each entry is written by a noted authority in the field and includes accompanying reference citations. Entries are keyed to the Motif Index of Folk Literature by Stith Thompson and grouped according to that Index's scheme. The reference also includes an introductory essay on the concepts of archetypes and motifs and the scholarship associated with them. This is the only book in English on motifs and themes that is completely folklore oriented. It deals with motif numbers and is tied to the Thompson Motif Index. It includes in-depth examination of such motifs as Bewitching, Chance and Fate, Choice of Roads, Death or Departure of the Gods, the Double, Ghosts and Other Revenants, the Hero Cycle, Journey to the Otherworld, Magic, Invulnerability, Soothsayer, Transformation, Tricksters.

Mythical and Fabulous Creatures Malcolm South, 1987-03-12 This serious scholarly treatment of 20 imaginary beings from dragon and phoenix to giants and fairies discusses the origin of each as an idea, its symbolism and lore, and its appearances in art, literature, or film. Extensive bibliographies follow the generally ambitious and erudite essays while a final catch-all article and selective bibliography cover still more ground at a gallop. There are a number of thoughtful and well-written interpretive investigations into the nature and history of some persistent types. Entries on the Basilisk, Harpies, Medusa and the Sphinx are particularly fine; here one feels that the mystery and power of these imaginative creatures is not vitiated by scholarly taxidermy. Library Journal

This book provides thorough documentation of the best known creatures of fantasy with a breadth of coverage that is both impressive and delightful. Recommended for all libraries supporting research in mythology, fantasy, folklore, or popular culture.

Ecopsychology of Border Islands of Okinawa Tatsuhiro Nakajima, Ph.D., 2014-06-26 This is a book of psychoanalysis. However, the patient is not a human but place and imagination of placing. The islands of Okinawa, placed on the border of Japan and Taiwan, consist of a complex of subtropical islands in the East China Sea with marine life abundantly found in the beautiful emerald ocean. However, Okinawa is a history of deterritorialization starting from colonization of the former Ryukyu kingdom by Japan in 1879 followed by the World War II and the US occupation until 1972. These tiny dots on the Pacific Ocean became subject to the collective fate of the world. However, placing oneself in these tiny dots and looking at the world from within provides a picture that is totally different from looking at them externally. There are numerous accounts by ethnographers and anthropologists who carried out research in this region of carnival masks and costumes, their belief in the oceanic paradise, worship of nature, ancestor, and women's spirituality. Psychoanalysis of the anthropological research unfolds complexity of this field and deconstructs dualistic modern mind that separates nature from psyche What appears is an ecological perspective of the psyche of the new era

Liminal Images Alex Woodcock, 2005

The presence of unusual grotesque and rude carvings on ecclesiastical buildings have been explained in a number of ways from reflecting the warped sense of humour of the masons to a purely ornamental or marginal function.

However in this study of medieval sculpture from southern England Alex Woodcock suggests that imagery should be seen in the same way as the buildings themselves as liminal spaces mediating between the human mortal world and the sacred and unknown.

In examining various distorted and foliate heads grotesques mythical creatures beasts and so on Woodcock argues that these are wholly appropriate images for medieval religious life reflecting the ambiguous and the unclassifiable in an unknown realm whilst also having an apotropaic function.

Placing emphasis on liminality the study focuses in particular on heads severed foliate and otherwise and whole figures humans animals and hybrids including detailed studies of the siren and mermaid.

Forest Rites Peter Sahlins, 1994

In May 1829 strange reports surfaced from the Ariège department in the French Pyrenees describing male peasants bizarrely dressed in women's clothes gathering in the forests at night to chase away state guards and charcoal makers. This was the raucous War of the Demoiselles a protest against the national French Forest Code of 1827 which restricted peasants' rights to use state and private forests. Peter Sahlins unravels the fascinating story of this celebrated popular uprising and in his telling captures the cultural, historical and political currents that swept the countryside during France's July 1830 Revolution.

Sahlins explains how and why the Ariège peasants drew on the practices and rituals of folk culture as well as on a revolutionary tradition to defend their inherited rights to the forest. To explore these rights and their expression he delves into the history of forest management of peasant conflicts with the state and of popular culture particularly the disputed history of Carnival and of local rituals of justice. Sahlins also sheds new light on the French revolutionary tradition and the Three Glorious Days of July 1830. The drama and symbolism of the War of the Demoiselles have inspired nearly a dozen plays novels films and even a comic book Using the concepts of anthropology and cultural studies as transport Sahlins moves from this rich event to the wider worlds of peasant society in France Focusing on the years from 1829 to 1832 but drawing on sources since the sixteenth century his book should captivate social cultural and political historians of both early modern and modern Europe Making Sense in the Humanities : a Student's Guide to Writing and Style Maurice Legris,Margot Northey,1990 Atlantis ,2006 Unending Metamorphoses Margareta Petersson,1996
