Member must have a valid NYS driver's license and the vehicle that the Restricted Parking Permit is requested for must have a valid NYS registration (this requirement is not applicable for members of the service with certain exempted titles, i.e., certain employment titles allow members to reside outside of New York City and the resident counties). Law Enforcement in the Age of Black Lives Matter Dwayne A. Mack, Sandra E. Weissinger, 2017-12-29 There is a reason why people claim great respect for officers of the law the job by description is hard if not deadly It takes a certain kind of person to accept the consequences of the job seeing the very worst situations on a regular basis and knowing that one's life is on the line every hour of every day Working in law enforcement is emotionally and psychologically draining It affects these public servants both on and off the job Said plainly shaking an officers hand when you see them or posting a sign in the front yard that reads Support the Badge is lip service Even going as far as to donate money to a crowdsourcing fundraising site does little to support the long term professional development needs of officers These are surface level signs of solidarity and do little in terms of showing respect for the job and those who do it For those who want to do more this text provides reasons and a rationale for doing better by these public servants Showing respect does not mean that one agrees with whatever another person or institution claims to be the right way Showing respect and admiration means that we charge individuals to live up to their fullest potentials and integrate innovation wherever possible In the case of policing in the era of Black Lives Matters policing as usual simply is not an option any longer It is disrespectful to both the officers and those who are being policed to rest on the laurels of past policing tactics As we enter a time period in which police interactions are recorded dash cams or body cams for example and new populations are being targeted Latinx people there is much to learn about what is working and what is not    UC Irvine Law Review ,2013    University of Pennsylvania Law Review
