Necropolitics:

Necropolitics Achille Mbembe, 2019-10-25 In Necropolitics Achille Mbembe a leader in the new wave of francophone critical theory theorizes the genealogy of the contemporary world a world plagued by ever increasing inequality militarization enmity and terror as well as by a resurgence of racist fascist and nationalist forces determined to exclude and kill He outlines how democracy has begun to embrace its dark side what he calls its nocturnal body which is based on the desires fears affects relations and violence that drove colonialism This shift has hollowed out democracy thereby eroding the very values rights and freedoms liberal democracy routinely celebrates As a result war has become the sacrament of our times in a conception of sovereignty that operates by annihilating all those considered enemies of the state Despite his dire diagnosis Mbembe draws on post Foucauldian debates on biopolitics war and race as well as Fanon's notion of care as a shared vulnerability to explore how new conceptions of the human that transcend humanism might come to pass These new conceptions would allow us to encounter the Other not as a thing to exclude but as a person with whom to build a more just world

Necropolitics Francisco Ferrándiz, Antonius C. G. M. Robben, 2015-06-19 The unmarked mass graves left by war and acts of terror are lasting traces of violence in communities traumatized by fear conflict and unfinished mourning Like silent testimonies to the wounds of history these graves continue to inflict harm on communities and families that wish to bury or memorialize their lost kin Changing political circumstances can reveal the location of mass graves or facilitate their exhumation but the challenge of identifying and recovering the dead is only the beginning of a complex process that brings the rights and wishes of a bereaved society onto a transnational stage Necropolitics Mass Graves and Exhumations in the Age of Human Rights examines the political and social implications of this sensitive undertaking in specific local and national contexts International forensic methods local level claims national political developments and transnational human rights discourse converge in detailed case studies from the United States Argentina Chile Peru Spain Bosnia Herzegovina Greece Rwanda Cambodia and Korea Contributors analyze the role of exhumations in transitional justice from the steps of interviewing eyewitnesses and survivors to the painstaking forensic recovery and comparison of DNA profiles This innovative volume demonstrates that contemporary exhumations are as much a source of personal historical and criminal evidence as instruments of redress for victims through legal accountability and memory politics Contributors Zo Crossland Francisco Ferrándiz Luis Fondebrider Iosif Kovras Heonik Kwon Isaias Rojas Perez Antonius C G M Robben Elena Lesley Katerina Stefatos Francesc Torres Sarah Wagner Richard Ashby Wilson

Queer Necropolitics Jin Haritaworn, Adi Kuntsman, Silvia Posocco, 2014-02-03 This book comes at a time when the intrinsic and self evident value of queer rights and protections from gay marriage to hate crimes is increasingly put in question It assembles writings that explore the new queer vitalities within their wider context of structural violence and neglect Moving between diverse geopolitical contexts the US and the UK Guatemala and Palestine the Philippines Iran and Israel the chapters in this volume interrogate claims to queerness in the face s of death both spectacular and everyday Queer Necropolitics mobilises the concept of necropolitics in order to illuminate everyday death worlds from more expected sites such as war torture or imperial invasion to the mundane and normalised violence of racism and gender normativity the market and the prison industrial complex Contributors here interrogate the distinction between valuable and pathological lives by attending to the symbiotic co constitution of queer subjects folded into life and queerly abjected racialised populations marked for death Drawing on diverse yet complementary methodologies including textual and visual analysis ethnography and historiography the authors argue that the distinction between war and peace dissolves in the face of the banality of death in the zones of abandonment that regularly accompany contemporary democratic regimes The book will appeal to activist scholars and students from various social sciences and humanities particularly those across the fields of law cultural and media studies gender sexuality and intersectionality studies race and conflict studies as well as those studying nationalism colonialism prisons and war It should be read by all those trying to make sense of the contradictions inherent in regimes of rights citizenship and diversity

Perilous Beasts Stephen B. Neufeld, 2026-01-13 A deep dive into the history of bullfighting hunting and animal control in late nineteenth and early twentieth century Mexico In Perilous Beasts Stephen B Neufeld explains how and why Mexicans accepted animal death as a part of daily human life Whether with casual indifference or with roaring cheers the death of animals became a feature of the emerging liberal and capitalist society This study looks at an era between 1870 and 1920 when cities became killers sports became spectacle and wildlife became game Beasts died for science and entertainment all across turn of the century Mexico from cities and suburbs to wildernesses best exemplified by the proliferation of blood sports cockfighting bullfighting and hunting Neufeld explores topics including public health and the war against rabies the emergence of the bullring as modern entertainment and the deep contradictions between elite safari and indigenous foodways Perilous Beasts examines how Mexicans made sense of and culture from these practices Although some pushed back and demanded the abolition of practices like the bullfight many supported these sports with enthusiasm and even at times with full throated rioting and arson As animals lost their status as fellow beings they became casualties to the genocidal impulses of a changing society Through considerations of how the human animal justified killing dogs roosters bulls and other creatures for reasons beyond strict necessity Perilous Beasts explains the necropolitical ecology and power of a transformed Mexico

Ancient Necropolitics , 2025-01-27 This is the first collection of essays approaching aspects of Greek antiquity and its reception through necropolitics It discovers traces of necropolitics in the unburied and maltreated corpses of the Homeric epics it follows the manifestations of necropower in Greek tragedy historiography and biography and it delves into torture capital punishment and non normative burials in the ancient Greek world It contributes to the debate much of which is only available in modern Greek on recent archaeological evidence notably the iron bound individuals discovered in the Athenian suburb of Phaleron and includes a captivating exploration of necropolitics in Yorgos Lanthimos s Greek tragedy inspired cinema

The Aesthetics of Necropolitics , Natasha Lushetich, 2018-12-11 Every politics is an aesthetic If necropolitics is the accelerated politics of what is usually referred to as the apolitical age what are its manoeuvres temporalities intensities textures and tipping points Bypassing revelatory and reconstructionist approaches the tendency of which is to show that a particular site or practice is necropolitical by bringing its genealogy into evidence this collection of essays by artist philosophers and theorist curators articulates the pre perceptual working of necropolitics through a focus on the senses assignments of energy attitudes cognitive processes and discursive frameworks Drawing on different yet complementary methodologies visual performance affect and network analysis historiography and ethnography the contributors analyse cultural fetishes taboos sensorial and relational processes anchored in everyday practices or cued by specific artworks By mapping the necropolitics affective cartography they expand the concept beyond its teleological anthropocentric and reductive horizon of making and letting die to include posthuman and posthumous actants effectively arguing for the necropolitics transformatory political potential

Necropolitics, Racialization, and Global Capitalism Marina Gržinić, Šefik Tatlić, 2014 This book articulates a contemporary globalized world as one in which radical disparities in distribution of wealth are being reproduced as the basis for depoliticized social institutional and ideological discourses At its center is a reorientation of global capitalism from the management of life towards making a surplus value from death This change is presented as a reorientation of biopolitics bio meaning life to necropolitics necro meaning death Therefore in the book we work with processes of change of a historicization of biopolitics and its turn into necropolitics that leads to a theoretical trajectory from M Foucault to A Mbembe and beyond This book interprets the sustained perception of existence of dichotomy between these provisional extremes as a trademark of apolitical and or post political logics on which contemporary institutional political and social discourses tend to be structured upon More contrary to the majority of approaches that insists on a profound dichotomy between democracy and totalitarianism between poverty and free market and between democracy and capitalism this book does not interpret these relations as dichotomous but as mutually fulfilling The book elaborates in the context of articulation of these logics contemporary imperial racism racialization as an ideology of capitalism and states that the First World s monopoly on definition of modernity has its basis in contemporary reorganization of colonialism In the book the authors trace a forensic methodology of global capitalism with which life art culture economy and the political are becoming part of a detailed system of scrutiny presented and framed in relation to criminal or civil law Criminalization of each and every segment of our life is working hand in hand with a depoliticization of social conflicts and pacification of the relation between those who rules and those who are ruled The outcome is a differentiation of every single concept that must from now bear the adjectives of the necropolitical or forensic therefore we can talk about forensic images art projects and necropolitical life democracy citizenship This will change radically the perspectives of an emancipative project of politics if it is any possible to be named as such for the future Necropolitics Christophe D. Ringer,2020-11-17 Necropolitics The Religious Crisis of Mass Incarceration in America explores the pernicious and persistent presence of mass incarceration in American public life Christophe D Ringer argues that mass incarceration persists largely because the othering and criminalization of Black people in times of crisis is a significant part of the religious meaning of America This book traces representations from the Puritan era to the beginning of the War on Drugs in the 1980s to demonstrate their centrality in this issue revealing how these images have become accepted as fact and used by various aspects of governance to wield the power to punish indiscriminately Ringer demonstrates how these vilifying images contribute to racism and political economy creating a politics of death that uses jails and prisons to conceal social inequalities and political exclusion

Necropolitics and Its Discontents Behjat Abdullah,2018-08-07 Necropolitics and its Discontents addresses the relationship between the contemporary political production of death and the way mortality is figured in contemporary visual practices This unique volume brings artists and theorists together to examine the complex ways in which mortality intersects with questions of political community belonging and identity as explored in contemporary art practice and debate At a time of unprecedented public violence and refugee crises Necropolitics and its Discontents addresses the contribution of artistic practices to thinking through the culture of precarity and death that characterises the current historical moment The book offers a unique interdisciplinary intervention into current debates on the political and economic instrumentalisation of death demonstrating the important role of contemporary art in providing alternative images and ideas for the contemporary political imagination Combining formats such as the visual essay with critical theoretical interventions that draw upon contemporary political philosophy ethnography economics and art theory this volume is an important contribution to understanding the processes shaping contemporary political cultures of death Necropolitics R. Guy Emerson,2019-02-27 This book offers a contemporary look at violence in Mexico and argues for a recalibration in how necropolitics as the administration of life and death is understood The author locates the forces of mortality directly on the body rather than as an object of government thereby placing death in a politics of the everyday This necropolitics is explored through testimonies of individuals living in towns overrun by organized crime and resistance groups namely the autodefensa movement that operate throughout Michoacán one of the most violent states in Mexico This volume studies how individuals and communities go on living not in spite of the death that surrounds life but more disturbingly by attuning to it Necropower in North America Ariadna Estévez,2021-06-25 This book discusses and theorizes Achille Mbembe's necropolitics the politics of death in the specific context of North America It works to characterize and analyze the particularities and relational differences of American and Canadian necropowers vis vis their devices subjectivities necroempowered subjects and production of spaces of death in their geographical and symbolic borderlands with the Third World the US Mexico border indigenous lands migrant and Black American neighborhoods and resource rich geographies North American necropowers not only profit from death but also conduct disposable populations to death throughout the region The volume proposes a postcolonial perspective that characterizes the political power of North America as a necropower or the sovereign power to make die Each chapter therefore theorizes and analyzes the specificities of necropower examining different necropolitics that range from asylum and migration restrictions to the economic exploitation and abandonment of deprived populations and policing of ethnic minorities in particular Mexican immigrants indigenous peoples and African American communities Turkey's Necropolitical Laboratory Bargu Banu Bargu, 2019-10-08 This book makes a strong case that Turkey's regime and its vicissitudes are dependent on a necropolitical undercurrent Building on the insights of critical and contemporary theory the essays address the multiple ways in which lives are brought into the fold of power Once there they are subjected to mechanisms of death and destruction and to modalities of infrastructural violence strategic neglect and exposure This produces new forms of impoverishment inequality and disposability Bringing together historical discursive and ethnographic approaches from multiple disciplines this collection offers a sobering and original analysis of contemporary Turkey

Kuntsman, Esperanza Miyake, 2008 This volume asks daring and timely questions about the silence at the heart of queer studies Discussing race alongside queer often submerges raciality within queerness leaving racialised groups silent and silenced out of place This work creates a space where queerness raciality are brought together in creative tension to disturb these silences to hear the invisible to see the inaudible Discourse, 2011 Biopolitics, Necropolitics, Cosmopolitics C.L.

Quinan, Kathrin Thiele, 2021-03-25 The concepts of biopolitics and necropolitics have increasingly gained scholarly attention particularly in light of today's urgent and troubling issues that mark some lives as more or less worthy than others including the migration crisis, rise of populism on a global scale, homonationalist practices and state sanctioned targeting of gender sexual racial and ethnic others. This book aims to nuance this conversation by emphasising feminist and queer investments and interventions and by adding the analytical lens of cosmopolitics to ongoing debates around life living and death dying in the current political climate. In this way we move forward toward envisioning feminist and queer futures that rethink categories such as human and subjectivity based on classical modern premises. Informed by feminist queer studies postcolonial theory cultural analysis and critical posthumanism Biopolitics Necropolitics Cosmopolitics engages with longstanding questions of biopolitics and necropolitics in an era of neoliberalism and late capitalism but does so by urging for a more inclusive and less violent cosmopolitical framework. Taking account of these global dynamics that are shaped by asymmetrical power relations this fruitful posthumanist and post decolonial approach allows for visions of transformation of the matrix of inclusion/exclusion into feminist queer futures that work towards planetary social justice. This book is a significant new contribution to feminist and queer philosophy and politics and will be of interest to academics researchers and advanced students of gender studies postcolonial studies sociology philosophy politics and law. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Gender Studies. History Unhoused Steven Ryan Blevins, 2008

Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 2003 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences. The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1,800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers. Flood of Images Bernie Cook, 2015-04 Anyone who was not in New Orleans during Hurricane Katrina and the subsequent flooding of the city experienced the disaster as a media event: a flood of images pouring across television and computer screens. The twenty-four hour news cycle created a surplus of representation that overwhelmed viewers and complicated understandings of the storm the flood and the aftermath. As time passed documentary and fictional filmmakers took up the challenge of explaining what had happened in New Orleans reaching beyond news reports to portray the lived experiences of survivors of Katrina. But while these narratives presented alternative understandings and more opportunities for empathy than TV news Katrina remained a mediated experience. In Flood of Images Bernie Cook offers the most in depth wide ranging and carefully argued analysis of the mediation and meanings of Katrina. He engages in innovative close and comparative visual readings of news coverage on CNN Fox News and NBC documentaries including Spike Lee's When the Levees Broke and If God Is Willing and Da Creek Don't Rise Tia Lessin and Carl Deal's Trouble the Water and Dawn Logsdon and Lolis Elie's Faubourg Tremé and the HBO drama Tremé. Cook examines the production practices that shaped Katrina as media event exploring how those choices structured the possible memories and meanings of Katrina and how the media's memory making has been contested In Flood of Images Cook intervenes in the ongoing process of remembering and understanding Katrina
