WHAT IS A HOME WARRANTY

A home warranty is an insurance policy that protects you from unexpected expenses by covering the cost of covered repairs or replacements for the major components of your systems and appliances that fail due to normal wear and tear.

DO YOUR DUE DILIGENCE

Before you make a decision, it's essential to gather all the necessary information from each home warranty company. Here are five crucial questions to ask when evaluating your options:

1. What is Covered and What is Not? Ensure you have a clear understanding of the benefits, limitations, and exclusions included within the policy. Additionally, inquire about any restrictions or special requirements.

2. Who Pays for Service Calls? Find out who is responsible for the cost of each visit from a technician. It's important to know ahead of time who will be responsible for paying when things go wrong.

3. Who is the Claims Process Like? Determine how proactive the company is when it comes to claims handling. Efficient claims processing can save you time and frustration.

4. Is There a Waiting Period? Insure against waiting periods before your coverage becomes effective. Some companies may have a waiting period between enrollment and the start of coverage.

5. Do You Have a Network of Technicians? Determine if the company has a network of qualified and experienced technicians. It's especially important to know that your repairs are handled by licensed professionals.
