Til Death Do Us Part , Mother Millett Kate Millett,2020-05-05 Kate Millett s tremulous and hauntingly beautiful memoir begins with a telephone call from Minnesota where her mother is dying Her return home to a severe intelligent and controlling matriarch is the catalyst for a meditation on her upbringing in middle America and her subsequent outcast status as a political activist artist and lesbian Mother Millett is an intensely personal journey through the author s interior life a subject she has visited over the years in such classic texts as Sita and The Loony Bin Trip In these pages are reflections on a life of political engagement beginning with the sexual politics of the feminist movement proceeding to the struggle for gay liberation and culminating in her campaign for housing rights on the Lower East Side of New York where she and her neighbors currently face eviction Throughout Millett confronts her fears of losing her mother the anchor to a world she has long ago rejected but which continues to define her Echoing Philip Roth s Patrimony Millett writes with great poignancy about caring for the person who brought her into the world a role reversal that brings with it both devastation and grace

Narratives of Childhood Domestic Violence Tanya Frances,2025-04-01 Narratives of Childhood Domestic Violence explores young women s accounts of transitions to young adulthood after domestic violence in childhood from a psychological perspective This book centres a dialogue about epistemic justice and how experiences of violence that are marginal marginalised and less easily understood through dominant discourses can be listened to and heard Taking a critical feminist psychological approach Frances examines gendered and socio culturally located narrative practices arguing that narratives about change and transition in young adulthood after childhood domestic violence both re inscribe societal narratives that can be constraining and present stories of resistance and hope This book draws attention to the difficulties of being heard and understood when articulating an experience that sits in tension with normative expectations and trajectories for families and children growing up within them It also examines how tensions in storytelling practices are articulated in creative nuanced and diverse ways Frances ends the book by offering considerations for theory research and practice including practical implications and interventions and recommendations for policy This is an essential resource for academics and students interested in violence against women feminist psychology childhood abuse and concerns around epistemic justice as well as professionals in counselling social work charity work law and policy making The Ultimate Scene
