Evangelizing Our Children with Joy Mary Cooney, 2016-09-28 Ask any child what they want to be in life and they'll tell you they want to be great. The problem for parents is how to build on these natural God-given aspirations to raise happy healthy kids. Kids who'll go on to become happy healthy adults. Our children are destined for greatness each and every one of them. But let us not confuse fame with greatness, says Mary Cooney, the author of Evangelizing Our Children with Joy. All of our children, whether they lead ordinary or extraordinary lives, are called to exemplary virtue, generous sacrifice, courageous heroism, and above all, deep enduring love. They are called to be saints. With an energizing zeal and drive, Mary shares with us the wisdom that has come from the highs and lows of parenthood, intermingled with the inspiration she has received through prayer and the Bible. From the virtues of mercy, kindness, and patience, virtues abundantly needed in the family setting, to the riches of the sacramental life, Mary shows us how to teach our children that the path to living an extraordinary life is found through ordinary actions and habits of everyday living.      Sunday School Times ,1888      Baxter's Practical Works, Volume 1 ,2007-12. The editor's preface 1707 p. xiii stated that the works of Richard Baxter are perhaps the best body of practical divinity that is extant in our own or any other tongue. Richard Baxter lived from 1615-1691. The DIRECTORY was completed in 1665. Its scope was intended to cover all of practical theology, a summa of casuistry. Timothy Keller calls it the greatest manual on Biblical counseling ever produced.      The Youth's Companion ,1831      Unitarian Review and Religious Magazine Charles Lowe, Henry Wilder Foote, John Hopkins Morison, Henry H.
