Report University of California (System). College of Agriculture,1894    The Hohokam Emil W. Haury,2016-10-18 For a calculated 1 400 years Snaketown was a viable village but unlike so many tells in the Near East the people remained the same while their culture changed The smoothly graded typological sequences for most attributes suggest to me that the ethnic identity of the inhabitants was not interrupted that they were one and the same people experiencing normal internal evolutionary cultural modifications wtih occasional boosts of features and ideas newly arrived from the outside Emil W Haury

always been the loyal workforce of vaqueros Mexican and Mexican American cowboys and their families Some of the vaquero families have worked on the ranches through five or six generations In this book Jane Clements Monday and Betty Bailey Colley bring together the voices of these men and women who make ranching possible in the Wild Horse Desert From 1989 to 1995 the authors interviewed more than sixty members of vaquero families ranging in age from 20 to 93 Their words provide a panoramic view of ranch work and life that spans most of the twentieth century The vaqueros and their families describe all aspects of life on the ranches from working cattle and doing many kinds of ranch maintenance to the home chores of raising children cooking and cleaning The elders recall a life of endless manual labor that nonetheless afforded the satisfaction of jobs done with skill and pride The younger people describe how modernization has affected the ranches and changed the lifeways of the people who work there    A Carafe of Red Gerald Asher,2012-02-07 Every wine has a story In this collection of elegantly written essays from the past thirty years updated with a new introduction and endnotes renowned author Gerald Asher informs wine enthusiasts with insightful engrossing accounts of wines from Europe and America that offer just as much for those who simply enjoy vivid evocations of people and places Asher puts wine in its context by taking the reader on a series of discursive journeys that start with the carafe at his elbow In his introduction Asher says Wine draws on everything and leads everywhere Whether the subject is a supposedly simple red wine shared in a Parisian caf or a Napa

Valley Cabernet tasted with its vintner every essay in A Carafe of Red is as pleasurable as the wines themselves      Report
