Librarians can stay relevant in the twenty first century when they build on those areas where they have excelled Service to children is one of those and a hot topic is emergent literacy the earliest phases of literacy development Because parents are a child s first teacher they need to understand that children who enter school with a larger vocabulary are more likely to succeed in school and that they can offer experiences for their pre school children to prepare them for school This book provides six sessions for a children s librarian to use to introduce literacy skills to parents of preschool children These sessions teach parents how to give their child an opportunity to explore and experience new things Designed to be conducted in two simultaneous units one for parents and one for children handouts and activities are included These are especially helpful for helping parents who will be able to make most of the teaching devices rather than purchasing expensive commercial items The hot topic for children s librarians building their pre school programming is emergent literacy the earliest phases of literacy development A brief introduction to the research in emergent literacy and some examples of successful programs are given Because parents are a child s first teacher they need to understand that children who enter school with a larger vocabulary are more likely to succeed in school and that they can offer experiences for their pre school children to prepare them for school This book provides six sessions for a children s library to use to introduce literacy skills to parents of preschool children These sessions teach parents how to give their child an opportunity to explore and experience new things Designed to be conducted in two simultaneous units one for parents and one for children handouts and activities are included These are especially helpful for parents who will be able to make the most of the teaching devices

rather than purchasing expensive commercial items This would be especially helpful as a training manual for solo children s librarians who must use volunteers to conduct the children s workshop Bird Student George Miksch Sutton,2013-05-07 At thirteen George Miksch Sutton planned a school of ornithology centered around his collection of bird skins feathers bones nests eggs and a prized stuffed crow As an adult he became one of the most prominent ornithologists and bird artists of the twentieth century He describes his metamorphosis from amateur to professional in Bird Student Born in 1898 Sutton gives us his clearest memories of his boyhood in Nebraska Minnesota Oregon Illinois Texas and West Virginia with his closely knit family Recognizing birds identifying them correctly drawing them and writing about them became more and more important to him His intense admiration for Louis Agassiz Fuertes had a good deal to do with his beginning to draw birds in earnest and his correspondence and his 1916 summer visit with the generous Fuertes taught him to look at birds with the eyes of a professional artist and to consider the possibility of making ornithology his career By 1918 Sutton had talked himself into a job at the Carnegie Museum of Natural History in Pittsburgh which gave him fresh opportunities to learn and travel and his 1920 field trip to the Labrador Peninsula stimulated his lifelong interest in arctic birds Further expeditions to James Bay the east coast of Hudson Bay on leave from his job as state ornithologist of Pennsylvania and Southampton Island at the north end of Hudson Bay in search of the elusive blue goose and its nesting grounds give us glimpses of field methods before the days of sophisticated equipment Sutton ends his autobiography in 1935 with an account of his graduate days at Cornell University and his position as curator of the Fuertes Memorial Collection of Birds Bird Student is about raising young roadrunners and owls and prairie dogs sailing and being stranded in arctic waters preparing specimens in the hold of a ship hunting birds and caribou and bears in almost inaccessible regions canoeing in the Far North camping in Florida and delivering speeches in Pennsylvania Sutton s gift for mixing facts and philosophy lets us see the evolution of a naturalist as his inherent curiosity and innocent enjoyment of beauty led to a permanent desire to preserve this beauty El-Hi
