Violence on the Margins Timothy Raeymaekers, 2013-08-27 This survey of various African and Asian conflicts examines people's experiences on territorial borders and the ways they affect political configurations. By focusing on individuals' routines and daily life, these contributions treat borderland dynamics as actual political units with their own actions and outcomes.

Hunger Hotspots WFP; FAO, 2024-10-31 In the current edition of a regular joint bi-yearly report, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) and the World Food Programme (WFP) warn that acute food insecurity is projected to worsen in 16 hunger hotspots, including a total of 14 countries and two regional clusters which comprise 8 countries during the outlook period from November 2024 to May 2025. The Sudan, Palestine, South Sudan, Haiti, and Mali remain hotspots at the highest concern level, while Chad, Lebanon, Myanmar, Mozambique, Nigeria, the Syrian Arab Republic, and Yemen are classified as hotspots of very high concern. Since the May 2024 edition, Kenya, Lesotho, Namibia, and the Niger have been added to the hunger hotspots list, while Burkina Faso, Ethiopia, Malawi, Somalia, Zambia, and Zimbabwe remain designated as hunger hotspots. Immediate and scaled-up assistance is crucial in all 16 hunger hotspots to protect livelihoods and improve access to food. This report outlines country-specific recommendations for urgent emergency responses as well as anticipatory actions to meet existing humanitarian needs and implement short-term protective interventions before new crises emerge. The report focuses on the most severe and deteriorating acute hunger situations but it does not represent all countries' territories experiencing high levels of acute food insecurity.

Reflections on Myanmar Reshmi Banerjee, 2023-02-17 Myanmar is known for its engaging history, rich cultural heritage, and diverse ethnic communities. Its tumultuous political past has been discussed by academics and policy makers for decades; however, the land of the Shwedaṅgon cannot only be defined by conflict and contestation. Myanmar is complex and multi-layered, with innumerable issues shaping its identity and manifold interpretations creating its distinctiveness. A deeper comprehension of its past glory, with thoughtful deliberation on its socio-economic challenges, helps to understand the country better. This book fills this gap by focusing on four broad themes: reminiscence, restoration, re-evaluation, and resurrection. It studies interconnected issues ranging from nostalgia and belonging to Myanmar's contribution to art and heritage through its museums, cinema, folk traditions, from the problems of landlessness, resource dispossession, and climate change to the experience of marginalized groups. The author weaves these themes into a common narrative of discovering Myanmar through a holistic lens. The book aims to explore the country through its history, culture, communities, and challenges. A unique contribution, the book highlights the myriad facets of Myanmar by contemplating on its inherent strengths and visible weaknesses. It would be indispensable for scholars and researchers of Southeast Asian studies, Asian studies, area studies, Myanmar studies, political studies, cultural studies, and sociology.

Food Security and Development Udaya Sekhar Nagothu, 2014-11-13 The global food system is characterized by large numbers of people experiencing food insecurity and hunger on the one hand and vast amounts of food

ASEAN and the Responsibility to Protect Thida Chanthima Neth, 2024-11-13 This book adopts a sociolegal and interdisciplinary approach to examine how the Responsibility to Protect R2P has been understood within the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN Historically the international community has struggled to effectively address humanitarian crises worldwide The concept of the Responsibility to Protect R2P has emerged over the past two decades as a principle that could guide states efforts to prevent and respond to humanitarian crises However R2P's interpretation varies across different regions and it remains to be established whether it can successfully achieve its goals This book adopts an interdisciplinary approach to analyse how R2P has been perceived and applied within the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN and China In particular it explores ASEAN's ASEAN member states and China's understanding and implementation of R2P paying special attention to the 1999 East Timor crisis the Rohingya crisis and the West Papua conflict The book assesses whether R2P has influenced the actions of ASEAN its member states and China At a broader level the book also explores regional approaches to international law shedding light on Southeast Asian states perspectives on this aspect of global governance This book will be of much interest to students of Responsibility to Protect Asian politics human rights international law and International Relations in general

Gender, Violence and the State in Asia Amy Barrow, Joy L. Chia, 2016-07-01 While gender based violence occurs in all societies irrespective of the level of development or cultural setting whether in conflict or peacetime the challenges for legal responses to gender based violence are particularly acute in Asia This book addresses the lack of academic discourse on gender based violence in Asia beyond domestic violence by demonstrating that gendered violence exists within many different contexts and is perpetuated by multiple actors Bringing together scholars legal practitioners and human rights advocates the book examines the intersections between gender violence and the state in Asian contexts It considers the role of state institutions in perpetuating and preventing violence based on gender and identity and thus contributes to growing scholarship around due diligence standards under international law Analyzing both physical and structural gender based violence it scrutinizes how such violence exists within a landscape shaped by distinct cultural norms laws and policies and grapples with how to practically translate international human rights standards about state responsibility into these complex domestic environments Contributors from diverse backgrounds draw on case studies and empirical research to ground this academic scholarship in lived experiences of individuals and their communities in Asia By bridging the divide between policy laws and practice to offer a unique insight into both theoretical and practical responses to how gender based violence is understood within communities and state institutions in Asian countries this book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian studies Gender Studies and Law
