Myanmar Love Story Photo:

7 Days in Myanmar, 2014 Largely isolated from the world for more than four decades Myanmar has made a remarkable return to the global stage following a political transformation that represents a watershed moment in the country's history. Now for the first time ever the rich culture, stunning landscapes and diverse peoples of the country are presented in a unique visual time capsule. Here is the new Myanmar as seen over a single week by a team of thirty famous photographers from eleven different countries. Their mission: To capture the life and spirit of Myanmar from every angle in every corner of the country. Through the downtown streets of Yangon and the handicraft centres of Mandalay, above the temple-dotted plains of Bagan and on the waters of Inle Lake, inside border towns and hill-tribe villages and all the way to the furthest reaches of the north and south. The portrait they created reveals a nation full of natural beauty, old world charm, deep spirituality and new hope. Featuring essays that provide context on Myanmar's history and culture and hundreds of outstanding original photographs, 7 Days in Myanmar shows why the world is watching Myanmar and why Myanmar is ready for the world. The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Art in Global Asia Menene Gras, Jonathan Harris, Bashir Makhoul, 2022-12-30 This substantial collection of newly commissioned essays presents an ambitious, entertaining and accessible guide to developments in Asian art over the past 20 years of the epoch of globalization. The term global Asia signals the genesis and evolution of contemporary art within the context of global economic, social, political and intellectual change related to the end of the Cold War, decolonization, the emergence of postcolonial societies and cultures and the rise of a global contemporary art world. In the handbook, its editors establish in an extended introductory section and in four section introductions the theoretical, geographical and historical parameters within which the contemporary visual arts of global Asia may be described, analyzed and evaluated. The collected chapters provide a diverse, multi-authored, heterogeneous and genuinely plural account of art and its contexts. The democratic and inclusive character of globalization is reflected and produced within this anthology, which includes different styles of writing as well as varieties of analytic and thematic focus. The anthology will appeal to both scholars and students in art history, art practice, curation, contemporary art, fine art, cultural studies and globalization studies.

PHOTOVIDEOi, 2005-05 A local Singaporean magazine dedicated to photography and videography. Defiled on the Ayeyarwaddy Ma Thanegi, 2011 Myanmar artist and author of The Native Tourist. Ma Thanegi is always hungry for food, conversation and a good story. Not the sort of woman to settle into a comfortable, middle-aged existence of tending to her knitting while watching soap operas, she decides to satisfy a life-long dream and travel the thirteen hundred mile length of her country's Ayeyarwaddy River. Taking little with her but her red lipstick, her curiosity and her unquenchable sense of humor, she sets off on a journey that Paul Theroux or Redmond O Hanlon would envy. Traveling on any boat that will let her come aboard, sleeping on wooden decks and eating with strangers, Ma Thanegi observes Myanmar with the eye of an artist and the insight of a lifelong resident. Stalking dancers at a Kachin festival, careening down the rock-infested white water.
