 and Romances of Brittany (Classic Reprint)* Lewis Spence,2017-07-18 Excerpt from Legends and Romances of Brittany Connected with Brittany I have relegated to a separate chapter and I have considered it only fitting to include such of the Jazz s of that rare and human songstress Marie de France as deal with the Breton land The legends of those sainted men to whom Brittany owes so much will be found in a separate chapter in collect ing the matter for which I have obtained the kindest assistance from Miss Helen Macleod Scott who has the preservation of the Celtic spirit so much at heart I have also included chapters on the interesting theme of the black art in Brittany as well as on the several species of fays and demons which haunt its moors and forests nor will the heroic tales of its great warriors and champions be found wanting To assist the reader to obtain the atmosphere of Brittany and in order that he may read these tales without feeling that he is perusing matter relating to a race of which he is Other wise ignorant I have afforded him a slight sketch of the Breton environment and historical development and in an attempt to lighten his passage through the volume I have here and there told a tale in verse sometimes translated sometimes original About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare
