North of America Asa McKercher, Michael D. Stevenson, 2023-07-15 In 1941 influential US publishing magnate Henry Luce declared the world was in the midst of the first great American century believing his nation held the power and vision to lead and transform the world What did a newly outward looking and hegemonic United States mean for its northern neighbour North of America is a sharp eyed volume providing a unique look at postwar Canada bringing to the fore the opinions and perceptions of a broad range of Canadians from consumers to diplomats jazz musicians to urban planners and a diverse cross section in between As they grappled with issues including constitutional reform transit policy national security the arrival of television white supremacy and postwar domesticity Canadians were ever mindful of the unfolding American experience and its influence

A Comparative Examination of Multi-Party Actions Joanne Blennerhassett, 2016-10-20 This monograph addresses the phenomenon of mass harm and how it may be resolved through collective redress It examines particularly how such redress may be achieved through mechanisms such as multi party actions MPAs In order to do this an analytical framework is created against which to evaluate various multi party procedures This is illustrated through the experience of a selection of common law jurisdictions in dealing with mass harm namely that of England and Wales Canada Australia and the United States as well as that of EU collective redress It examines multi party action laws benchmarked against the objectives identified in the analytical framework The phenomenon of environmental mass harm in particular is explored as a case study as it illustrates some of the difficulties that may arise in mass harm litigation Also this work explores where the best solutions for mass harm redress may lie in the future perhaps in collective actions or through alternatives such as regulation and alternative dispute resolution or a combination of these Finally the experience of mass harm litigation in Ireland is examined as currently this jurisdiction does not have an effective mechanism for dealing with mass harm This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional's International Arbitration online service

God Doesn't Live Here Anymore Michael Wood Daly, 2023-01-16 The church in Canada is in trouble Media reports suggest that nine thousand churches are likely to close over the next ten years The United Church of Canada reports closing a congregation a week The Anglican Church of Canada anticipates closing its last congregation by 2040 and the Roman Catholic Church Canada's largest religious denomination reports having closed one fifth of the tradition's 2 500 congregations God Doesn't Live Here Anymore traces the story of the church in Canada from its far off historical roots in biblical times rise to dominance in medieval Europe role in the colonization of Canada strained relations with Canada's First Nations twentieth century prominence and the church's dramatic decline and loss of influence entering the twenty first century Wood Daly pulls no punches in calling the church to accept responsibility for its own decline while maintaining hope that resurrection is still possible The church as Canadians may know it might disappear but for Christians death has never been the end of the story Pacific Futures Warwick Anderson, Miranda Johnson, Barbara Brookes, 2018-11-30 How when and why has the Pacific been a locus for imagining different futures by those living there as well as passing through What does that tell us about the distinctiveness or otherwise of this sea of islands Foregrounding the work of leading and emerging scholars of Oceania Pacific Futures brings together a diverse set of approaches to and examples of how futures are being conceived in the region and have been imagined in the past Individual chapters engage the various and sometimes contested futures yearned for unrealized and even lost or forgotten that are particular to the Pacific as a region ocean island network destination and home Contributors recuperate the futures hoped for and dreamed up by a vast array of islanders and outlanders from Indigenous federalists to Lutheran improvers to Cantonese small business owners making these histories of the future visible In so doing the collection intervenes in debates about globalization in the Pacific and how the region is acted on by outside forces and postcolonial debates that emphasize the agency and resistance of Pacific peoples in the context of centuries of colonial endeavor With a view to the effects of the slow violence of climate change the volume also challenges scholars to think about the conditions of possibility for future thinking at all in the midst of a global crisis that promises cataclysmic effects for the region Pacific Futures highlights futures conceived in the context of a modernity coproduced by diverse Pacific peoples taking resistance to categorization as a starting point rather than a conclusion With its hospitable approach to thinking about history making and future thinking one that is open to a wide range of methodological epistemological and political interests and commitments the volume will encourage the writing of new histories of the Pacific and new ways of talking about history in this field the region and beyond Federal Register, 2013-12 From Click to Boom Lizhi Liu, 2024-11-12 The rise of e commerce has transformed China's economy over the past two decades By late 2020 close to 800 million Chinese people had shopped online and more than 60 million citizens were directly or indirectly employed in e commerce related industries Yet the rapid rise of the industry seems to defy conventional wisdom For instance China's e commerce market took off without strong formal institutions to support it challenging the prevailing notion in political economy that certain formal institutions like state provided secure property rights contract enforcement and the rule of law are crucial pre conditions for supporting efficient markets Using a vast array of qualitative and quantitative data Lizhi Liu reveals how with weak rule of law China instead outsourced part of its institutional functions to e commerce companies themselves prominent examples include Alibaba's Taobao.com and Tmall.com Liu calls these companies private regulatory intermediaries PRIs and shows how they fulfill various legal social and political functions that the state might otherwise take on Taobao for example has a complex reputation mechanism a credit score a fraud detection program and even a jury like system in which users can adjudicate cases or vote to change platform rules Liu also explores how beyond the systematic level e commerce has significant individual level effects namely that e commerce reduces the household cost of living but also distracts citizens from local political issues Ultimately this project goes beyond traditional analysis emphasizing either the rule of law or informal networks in supporting market development it provides a lens to understand institutional experimentation broadly and deepens our understanding of state business relationships in the Chinese context
