Radio David J. Halberstam, 1999 Radio is purely the announcer's medium. Accordingly most of the best sports broadcasting has been done not on television but on radio. David Halberstam writes from the knowledgeable and nuanced perspective of one who practices respects and understands the craft and its history. Bob Costas NBC Sports. Some of my friends and associates do not believe there was civilization before television but I assure them that listening to Red Barber on radio from Ebbets Field or to Marty Glickman from Madison Square Garden was better than watching television. It was magic. Sports on New York Radio brings back memories of that magic. Reading about the many gifted radio voices who covered the Dodgers, Yankees, Giants, Rangers, Jets, the fights and so much more reinforces my early conviction that I would never be a broadcaster. How I made it to even the brink of such company still baffles me. Dick Schaap ABC News, The Sports Reporters ESPN. I grew up with Red Barber, Mel Allen and Marty Glickman. They were warm friendly great voices. Through the radio they brilliantly linked the fan with the game. David Halberstam captures the colorful history and many great memories of sports on the radio. Robert Merrill 1 1 2 New York Yankees, New York Metropolitan Opera. The next best thing to sports on radio is reading about the perfect marriage of sports and radio. Halberstam takes us there. The information is riveting, the anecdotes hilarious. Radio lives in these pages. Vic Ziegel Columnist New York Daily News. Sports radio in New York has spawned many broadcast legends and David Halberstam has captured them in his thoughtful book. David W. Checketts President and CEO Madison Square Garden. Newsweek, 1973. Knowlton Nash,2001 From its beginnings broadcasting in Canada has been a battlefield with the larger than life entrepreneurs who fell in love with the new medium locked in battle with government and meddlesome do gooders impressed by the cultural power of radio The first fight of the radio pioneers was over advertising and initially the private broadcasters won commercials were here to stay making radio an immensely profitable industry But the biggest battle of the early years was between private broadcasters and those who lobbied against the new commercial adventurers should the airwaves be used to sell things and entertain or to enrich and educate Canadians The struggle consumed both sides for years even after the establishment of national public radio in 1936 The advent of television in the early 1950s merely moved the war to fresh terrain By the early 1980s the private broadcasters appeared to have won but a new player arrived on the scene the cable industry The proliferation of specialty channels threatened the end of mass national audiences for television but in an ironic twist the small specialty audiences for cable awoke private broadcasters to the need for specialized Canadian programming The swashbucklers who battled for control of the airwaves and over what is broadcast on them have left behind them a rich record one that Nash brings to life in this vivid and entertaining story of the men the Sedgwicks of Toronto the Siftons of the Prairies the Thomsons of Ontario the Bassettts and the Rogers of Toronto the Aspers of Winnipeg the Shaws of Calgary the Chandlers of Vancouver the Peladeaus of Quebec along with Moses Znaimer of CITY TV and Ivan Fecanof CTV who together have entertained us and tried to sell us things in the privacy of our living rooms for much of this century
