Expensive Poverty Greg Mills, 2021-10-01 Africa has received 1 2 trillion in development assistance since 1990 Even though donors have spent more than 1 000 per person over these 30 years the average income of sub Saharan Africans has increased by just 350 The continent has very little to show for this money some of which has been consumed by the donors themselves much of it by local governments and elites There must be a better way to address the poverty pandemic Expensive Poverty is focused on answering the trillion dollar question why have decades of spending had such a small impact on improving the lives of the poor Whatever the area of aid expenditure humanitarian governance military development the overall intention should be the same to try to reach the point that aid is no longer necessary Expensive Poverty lays out how to get there Journal of Travel Research ,2007-08      New Directions in the Theory and Research of Serious Leisure Robert A. Stebbins,2001 This study pulls together the findings of Dr Stebbin s research programme on leisure It presents his basic theory on serious leisure as well as his analysis of casual leisure identifying deviant leisure as falling into either group      The Guardian Index ,2003      Innovation in Tourism--creating Customer Value Peter Keller,2005      Managing Tourism Destinations Andreas Papatheodorou,2006 This title offers a selection of papers on the management of tourism destinations It covers four main themes managing tourism destinations and the determinants of travel choice planning and policy making development and evolution and the impacts of tourism management on the society and the environment      Hotel & Catering Review ,2007
