My Fathers Name A Black Virginia Family After The Civil War:

A Golden Weed Drew A. Swanson, 2014-08-12 Drew A Swanson has written an environmental history about a crop of great historical and economic significance American tobacco A preferred agricultural product for much of the South the tobacco plant would ultimately degrade the land that nurtured it but as the author provocatively argues the choice of crop initially made perfect agrarian as well as financial sense for southern planters Swanson who brings to his narrative the experience of having grown up on a working Virginia tobacco farm explores how one attempt at agricultural permanence went seriously awry He weaves together social agricultural and cultural history of the Piedmont region and illustrates how ideas about race and landscape management became entangled under slavery and afterward Challenging long held perceptions this innovative study examines not only the material relationships that connected crop land and people but also the justifications that encouraged tobacco farming in the region Virginia's Civil Rights Hero Curtis W. Harris Sr. William Lazarus, 2023-01-09 In 1924 the Virginia State Legislature passed the Racial Integrity Act The act banned interracial marriage down to a single drop of African blood Just three months later Curtis W Harris was born in Dendron Virginia Harris was the sixth child of impoverished sharecroppers living in a desolate outpost of the Commonwealth but in time he would lead the fight against the Racial Integrity Act and many other racially restrictive laws Despite being arrested multiple times and beaten Rev Harris would help reverse centuries of racial discrimination that began when slaves first arrived in Virginia in 1619 Author William Paul Lazarus tells the story of Harris determination in the face of intense hostility which took him to the forefront of America s Civil Rights Movement arm in arm with the Rev Martin Luther King Jr My Father's Name Lawrence P. Jackson, 2012-05-15 The author seeking to find his grandfather s old home follows his family history back to his great great grandfather who was born a slave and died a free man with forty acres Transformation of the African American Intelligentsia, 1880-2012 Martin Kilson, 2014-06-17 After Reconstruction African Americans found themselves largely excluded from politics higher education and the professions Martin Kilson explores how a modern African American intelligentsia developed amid institutionalized racism He argues passionately for an ongoing commitment to communitarian leadership in the tradition of Du Bois Officers of the Army and Navy (volunteer) who Served in the Civil War William Henry Powell, 1893 Invisible Founders Lynn Rainville, 2019-06-14 Literal and metaphorical excavations at Sweet Briar College reveal how African American labor enabled the transformation of Sweet Briar Plantation into a private women s college in 1906 This volume tells the story of the invisible founders of a college founded by and for white women Despite being built and maintained by African American families the college did not integrate its student body for sixty years after it opened In the process Invisible Founders challenges our ideas of what a college founder is restoring African American narratives to their deserved and central place in the story of a single institution one that serves as a microcosm of the American South Harper's, 2010 Facing Freedom Daniel B. Thorp, 2017-12-28 The history of African Americans in southern Appalachia after the Civil War has largely escaped the attention of scholars of both African Americans and the region In Facing Freedom Daniel Thorp relates the complex experience of an African American community in southern Appalachia as it negotiated a radically new world in the four decades following the Civil War Drawing on extensive research in private collections as well as local state and federal records Thorp narrates in intimate detail the experiences of black Appalachians as they struggled to establish autonomous families improve their economic standing operate black schools within a white controlled school system form independent black churches and exercise expanded if contested roles as citizens and members of the body politic Black out migration increased markedly near the close of the nineteenth century but the generation that transitioned from slavery to freedom in Montgomery County established the community institutions that would survive disenfranchisement and Jim Crow Facing Freedom reveals the stories and strategies of those who pioneered these resilient bulwarks against the rising tide of racism

Finding Francis Elizabeth J. West, 2022-12-08 Winner of the 2023 College Language Association Book Award Finding Francis finding family freeing history Francis is found Beyond Francis a family is found in archival material that barely deigned to notice their existence This is the story of Francis Sistrunk and her children from enslavement into forced migration across South Carolina Georgia Alabama and Mississippi It spans decades before the Civil War and continues into post emancipation America A family story full of twists and turns Finding Francis reclaims and honors those women who played an essential role in the historical survival and triumph of Black people during and after American slavery Elizabeth West has created a remarkable biohistoriography of everyday Black resistance grounded in a determination to maintain enduring connections of family kinship and community despite the inhumanity and rapacity of slavery There is inevitable heartbreak in these histories but there is also an empowering strength and inspiration the truth of these lives will indeed set us all free
