

MY FATHER'S WAR

The background of the book cover is a dark, atmospheric photograph of a coastal town at dusk or dawn. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a dark purple and black at the bottom. In the foreground, the dark silhouette of a person's head and shoulders is visible on the left side, looking out towards the town. The town itself is nestled in a valley, with buildings and a prominent church spire visible against the dark landscape. The overall mood is somber and reflective.
