My Forbidden Face Latifa, 2008-09-04 Latifa was born into an educated middle class Afghan family in Kabul in 1980 She dreamed of one day of becoming a journalist she was interested in fashion movies and friends Her father was in the import export business and her mother was a doctor Then in September 1996 Taliban soldiers seized power in Kabul From that moment Latifa just 16 years old became a prisoner in her own home Her school was closed Her mother was banned from working The simplest and most basic freedoms walking down the street looking out a window were no longer hers She was now forced to wear a chadri My Forbidden Face provides a poignant and highly personal account of life under the Taliban regime With painful honesty and clarity Latifa describes the way she watched her world falling apart in the name of a fanatical interpretation of a faith that she could not comprehend Her voice captures a lost innocence but also echoes her determination to live in freedom and hope Earlier this year Latifa and her parents escaped Afghanistan with the help of a French based Afghan resistance group
