My Life as a Prayer Elizabeth Cunningham, 2023-11-07 One of the most engaging memoirs I've read in ages. The wise and feisty voice I've come to know and love in Elizabeth Cunningham's Maeve Chronicles fills these pages and carried me away. Anyone who has forged an independent path through the luminous moments and deepest shadows of a soul-filled life will recognize their own spiritual adventures reflected here. Mirabai Starr: God of Love. In this intriguing spiritual memoir, The Maeve Chronicles author Elizabeth Cunningham traces her dynamic faith journey and its relationship to her writing. As the daughter of an Episcopal priest, author Elizabeth Cunningham was born into community, sacred story, and the mysteries of prayer. For her, if a writer is one who writes, then a prayer is one who prays. As such, her praying is dynamic, a dance between many opposites: active vs. contemplative, community vs. individual, human vs. wild. And Cunningham sees the divine as both incarnate and transcendent, an intimate beloved and a vast mystery. When she prays, Cunningham is both audacious and reverent, asking tough questions of God, raging, listening intently, and dancing and singing ecstatically. Her storyteller's imagination opens a path from the known to the unknowable, from despair to wonder. In this nonfiction debut, Cunningham recounts both her lifelong spiritual quest and her ongoing spiritual questions Her journey takes her from her childhood church with its ornate liturgy to the silence of Quaker meeting from her ordination as an interfaith minister to an eclectic earth centered community where she served as priestess before becoming a hermit of sorts making a church of her own backyard Candid and passionate Cunningham s memoir invites readers of all faiths and doubts to explore what it means to live life as a prayer in the beautiful imperiled world we share      My Life in France Julia Child,2022-11 Bursting with Child s adventurous and humorous spirit My Life in France captures post war Paris with wonderful vividness and charm      The Holocaust in French Film André Colombat,1993 Analyzes the evolution of the representation of the Holocaust in French cinema from 1940 to the present Gathers detailed analyses of the nine most widely praised French films dealing with the Holocaust Includes stills filmography bibliography index and a lengthy interview with director Pierre Sauvage      My Life in E-flat Chan Parker,2021-11-25 A memoir of the Jazz Age and a life profoundly influenced by it My Life in E flat is the remarkable memoir of a woman who witnessed some of the most important movements in the history of jazz Through her autobiography Chan Parker provides intimate insights into the music and into life with Charlie Parker the key figure in the development of bebop and one of the most important of all jazz musicians Born Beverly Dolores Berg in New York City at the height of the Jazz Age Parker s father was a producer of vaudeville shows and her mother was a dancer in Florenz Ziegfeld s Midnight Frolic Parker became part of the jazz culture as a nightclub dancer and later as the wife of jazz saxophonists Charlie Parker and then Phil Woods In a moving and candid portrait of Charlie Parker the author describes in harrowing detail a man of incredible talent besieged with addictions and self destructiveness She painfully recounts his death at the age of 35 while married to her and its effect on her life as well as on the musical world Parker s honest portrait of one of the most gifted musicians in jazz provides unique insight into the history of the music and the difficulties faced by African American performers during the 1940s Parker also reflects on her struggle to find her own voice and on her work with Clint Eastwood on the film biography of Charlie Parker Bird 1988      Why French Children Don't Talk Back Catherine Crawford,2012-09-13 Catherine Crawford a mother of two young daughters is tired of the indulgent brand of parenting so popular in of her trendy Brooklyn neighbourhood All of the negotiating and bargaining has done scant more than to create a generation of little tyrants After being exposed to the well behaved respectful children of her French friends une lumiere went on French children don t talk back Why French Children Don t Talk Back is a witty and insightful look at how the French manage to bring up obedient well adjusted kids It occupies a pragmatic place on the book shelf and in life an anti Tiger Mother approach to parenting      Commencement Harvard College (1780- ). Class of 1866,1920      Paris Primitive Sally Price,2007-10-15 In 1990 Jacques Chirac the future president of France and a passionate fan of non European art met Jacques Kerchache a maverick art collector with the lifelong ambition of displaying African sculpture in the holy temple of French culture the Louvre Together they began laying plans and ten years later African fetishes were on view under the same roof as the Mona Lisa Then in 2006 amidst a maelstrom of controversy and hype Chirac presided over the opening of a new museum dedicated to primitive art in the shadow of the Eiffel Tower the Musée du Quai Branly Paris Primitive recounts the massive reconfiguration of Paris's museum world that resulted from Chirac's dream set against a backdrop of personal and national politics intellectual life and the role of culture in French society Along with exposing the machinations that led to the MQB's creation Sally Price addresses the thorny questions it raises about the legacy of colonialism the balance between aesthetic judgments and ethnographic context and the role of institutions of art and culture in an increasingly diverse France Anyone with a stake in the myriad political cultural and anthropological issues raised by the MQB will find Price's account fascinating      The Tablet ,1895      Asian Review ,1953
