Myth And Archive A Theory Of Latin American Narrative:

Myth and Archive Roberto González Echevarría, 1998 Discusses the theory of the origin and evolution of the Latin American narrative and the emergence of the modern novel      Myth and archive Roberto Gonzalez Echevarria, 2006

Sub-versions of the Archive Carlos Riobó, 2010-12-29 Sub Versions of the Archive Manuel Puig's and Severo Sarduy's Alternative Identities analyzes recent theories of the archive to examine how Manuel Puig and Severo Sarduy reformulate the Latin American literary tradition This study focuses on eclectic theories of the archive as both repository and danger drawing from an array of sources both within and outside the Hispanic literary tradition from Borges Foucault Arrom Derrida González Echevarría and Guillory to digital media and biotechnology This book also applies theories of cultural contamination Maria Lugones and symbolic capital Pierre Bourdieu to the novels of Puig and Sarduy to explore the representation of marginal cultures within a body of literature that previously altered or elided these subaltern cultures from the tradition Through close readings and critical theoretical applications this book demonstrates how archival fiction continues to be one of the most popular strategies among Latin American novelists and most importantly how they have successfully managed to find new ways to inscribe their alternative fictions within this tradition Puig's and Sarduy's novels reproduce discourses popular culture and the mass media that lack prestige within the traditional archive These discourses mirror realities of marginal groups gay people children the poor the illiterate women and racial minorities Their cultural variants sub versions of hegemonic masterstories are endowed with truth bearing power for them but were previously left out of the archive as legitimate novelistic models To date this is the only study of contemporary Latin American fiction that puts current theories of the archive especially that of Roberto González Echevarría to practice in such a systematic way Riobó's analysis of how Puig and Sarduy reformulate the Latin American canon is both a necessary complement of González Echevarría's work and an intelligent answer to the first of his projected masterstories Riobó's multidisciplinary approach      Blast, Corrupt, Dismantle, Erase Brett Josef Grubisic, Gisèle M. Baxter, Tara Lee, 2014-06-16 What do literary dystopias reflect about the times In Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase contributors address this amorphous but pervasive genre using diverse critical methodologies to examine how North America is conveyed or portrayed in a perceived age of crisis accelerated uncertainty and political volatility Drawing from contemporary novels such as Cormac McCarthy's The Road Neil Gaiman's American Gods and the work of Margaret Atwood and William Gibson to name a few this book examines dystopian literature produced by North American authors between the signing of NAFTA 1994 and the tenth anniversary of 9 11 2011 As the texts illustrate awareness of and deep concern about perceived vulnerabilities ends of water oil food capitalism empires stable climates ways of life non human species and entire human civilizations have become central to public discourse over the same period By asking questions such as What are the distinctive qualities of post NAFTA North American dystopian literature and What does this literature reflect about the tensions and contradictions of the inchoate continental community of North America

Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase serves to resituate dystopian writing within a particular geo social setting and introduce a productive means to understand both North American dystopian writing and its relevant engagements with a restricted mapped reality Refiguring the Archive Carolyn Hamilton, 2002-12-31 Refiguring the Archive at once expresses cutting edge debates on the archive in South Africa and internationally and pushes the boundaries of those debates It brings together prominent thinkers from a range of disciplines mainly South Africans but a number from other countries Traditionally archives have been seen as preserving memory and as holding the past The contributors to this book question this orthodoxy unfolding the ways in which archives construct sanctify and bury pasts In his contribution Jacques Derrida an instantly recognisable name in intellectual discourse worldwide shows how remembering can never be separated from forgetting and argues that the archive is about the future rather than the past Collectively the contributors demonstrate the degree to which thinking about archives is embracing new realities and new possibilities The book expresses a confidence in claiming for archival discourse previously unentered terrains It serves as an early manual for a time that has already begun

The Journal of Narrative Technique ,1997 Unhomely Rooms Roberto Ignacio Díaz, 2002 Even as he exposes the cultural fragmentation of Spanish America Diaz s critical gesture allows strangeness to become an integral part not only of individuals as Freud argues in The Uncanny but also of national cultural communities BOOK JACKET Archives, Documentation, and Institutions of Social Memory Francis Xavier Blouin, William G. Rosenberg, 2006 The Avant Garde and Geopolitics in Latin America examines the canonical Latin American avant garde texts of the 1920s and 1930s in novels travel writing journalism and poetry and presents them in a new light as formulators of modern Western culture and precursors of global culture Particular focus is placed on the work of Roberto Arlt and Mário de Andrade as exemplars of the movement Fernando J Rosenberg provides a theoretical historiography of Latin American literature and the role that modernity and avant gardism played in it He finds significant parallels between the cultural battles of the interwar years in Latin America and current debates over the role of the peripheral nation state within the culture of globalization Rosenberg establishes that the Latin American avant garde evolved on its own terms in polemic dialogue with the European movements critiquing modernity itself and developing a global geopolitical awareness In the process these writers created a bridge between postcolonial and postmodern culture forming a distinct movement that continues its influence today

Diaspora ,2000 Science and the Creative Imagination in Latin America Evelyn Fishburn, Eduardo L. Ortiz, 2005 This book considers the relationship between the humanities and the sciences in a Latin American context The geographical emphasis is important given the prominent role of science in the formation of the region s nation states and its strong presence in Latin American cultural output Most of the chapters focus on fictional narratives and scientific discourses Questions of consent resistance and ideology in both fields are considered The historical study of interplay between science and the novel helps identify what people were expected to believe at a given time and reveals how these beliefs were sustained This book provides insight into the connection between individual self understanding and the surrounding world of science within the broader question of the place of science in Latin American culture Chapters include Darwin in South America Geology Imagination and Encounter Walking Backward to the Future Time Travel and Race Natural Parts and Unnatural Others A reflection on Patrimony at the Turn of the 19th Century On the Transition from Realism to the Fantastic in the Argentina of the 1870s Holmberg and the Six of Córdoba Literature and Science in Martínez Estrada's Work The Nature Effect in Latin American Science Publications The Case of the Journal Redes Two Scientific Traditions in Martín Fierro Heisenberg's Uncertainty Principle in Contemporary Spanish American Fiction Constructing Postcoloniality Scientific Enquiries in Cien Años de Soledad Holograms and Simulacra Bioy Casares Subiela Piglia The Desert Poetics of Mario Montalbetti Writing Knowledge Topologies
