This Littler Light Jesse James DeConto, 2013-11-01 Like other evangelical kids Jesse James DeConto felt called to shine the light of truth into the world His job as a journalist and his young marriage though would radically change him First he learned that Christians have no corner on truth Working out in the world trying to be the Roaring Lamb he d been trained to be he met atheists and agnostics who seemed to do better at embodying Christian love than many Christians did Confessing the church s failures was one thing but the author had to face his own weakness the hard way when the cheap threads that held his marriage intact finally snapped Jesse found himself at the end of his twenties with a broken bank account a broken body and a broken family In the midst of that pain he discovered his brokenness better equipped him to share God s grace than his striving ever had He learned to say with theologian Karl Barth that his importance may consist in his poverty in his hopes and fears in his waiting and hurrying in the direction of his whole being toward what lies beyond his horizon and beyond his power
