Implementing Mental Health Promotion Margaret M. Barry, Aleisha M. Clarke, Inge Petersen, Rachel Jenkins, 2019-10-31

This book offers a comprehensive overview of current research policy and practice developments in promoting mental health and well being. It offers guidance on developing and delivering mental health promotion interventions across a variety of settings internationally. Chapters outline key mental health promotion concepts, implementation processes and outcomes through empirical findings, practical advice based on successful evidence based approaches and templates for action. In addition, chapters answer key 'how' questions on practical implementation as well as the 'whys' providing rationales for mental health promotion and identifying the key factors and underlying principles that make these interventions work. The book includes examples of evidence based practice with 17 case studies of innovative interventions from different international settings. These case studies illustrate the practical aspects of intervention development and delivery and the realities of implementing policies and programmes outside of controlled research conditions. Topics featured in this book include: Interventions that promote gender equality, Community empowerment models of mental health promotion, Mental health promotion in the home for children and parents, Promoting social and emotional learning in schools, Addressing stress and promoting mentally healthy workplaces, Mental health promotion within primary health care, Re-orienting mental health services to mental health promotion for service users and caregivers. Implementing Mental Health Promotion Second Edition is a must have resource for researchers, clinicians and related professionals and policymakers as well as graduate students across such interrelated disciplines as health promotion, public health, child and school psychology, social work, clinical psychology, child and adolescent psychiatry, health psychology, educational policy and practice, school nursing, occupational therapy, school counseling and family studies.

Saklofske and Moshe Zeidner. Handbook for School Based Mental Health Promotion: An Evidence Informed Framework for Implementation Alan W. Leschied, Donald H. Saklofske and Gordon L. Flett, Editors. This handbook provides a comprehensive overview to implementing effective evidence based mental health promotion in schools. It addresses issues surrounding the increasing demands on school psychologists and educational and mental health professionals to support and provide improved student well being, learning and academic outcomes. The volume explores factors outside the traditional framework of learning that are important in maximizing educational outcomes as well as how students learn to cope with emotional challenges that confront them both during their school years and across the lifespan. Chapters offer robust examples of successful programs and interventions addressing a range of student issues including depression, self-harm, social anxiety, high achiever anxiety and hidden distress. In addition, chapters explore ways in which mental health and education professionals can implement evidence informed programs from the testing and experimental stages to actual use.

within schools and classrooms Topics featured in this handbook include A Canadian perspective to mental health literacy and teacher preparation The relevance of emotional intelligence in the effectiveness of delivering school based mental health programs Intervention programs for reducing self stigma in children and adolescents School based suicide prevention and intervention Mindfulness based programs in school settings Implementing emotional intelligence programs in Australian schools The Handbook for School Based Mental Health Promotion is a must have resource for researchers clinicians and related professionals and policymakers as well as graduate students across such interrelated disciplines as child and school psychology social work education policy and politics special and general education public health school nursing occupational therapy psychiatry school counseling and family studies
