Labor Day

Labor Day is always celebrated annually on the first Monday in September. Labor Day is a Federal Holiday in the United States.

What Is Labor Day About?

The funny thing about Labor Day is that it's the one day of the year no one expects to work and celebrate work by not doing any. But it replicates our week. We labor, and then we rest. On Labor Day, we honor the value of labor by putting it out of our thoughts for an extra-long weekend.

Work is an activity we esteem most when we're not doing it. In a period of unemployment, for example, work seems like the grandest and most longed-for opportunity of all. Work is therefore a blessed endeavor. Whether it's baking a cakehole or doing laundry, serving customers or compiling a report, teaching a class or making a hospital bed. Our daily labors earn our daily bread and more.

Labor Day is to celebrate you, the American worker! It was envisioned by the founders to honor the American worker, the driving engine behind the most productive economy in the world, and the American work ethic that resulted in one of the highest standards of living in the world. All of this came out of a belief in economic and political democracy.

Of course, Labor Day not only celebrated the American workers but also protected their quality of life. Back in the late 1800s, the Labor movement was created to address some of the serious problems of the day including long working hours and lack of time off.

Mark True (T) or False (F):

2. No one works on Labor Day. ()
3. There's an extra-long weekend when Labor Day is celebrated. ()
4. We like work when we're doing it. ()

6. Labor Day honors the employer's. ()
7. American workers are responsible for one of the highest standards of living in the world. ()
8. The Labor movement was created because of serious problems like lack of jobs. ()

Answer the questions:

A. When they say "work is an activity we esteem most when we're not doing it", what does that mean?

B. What do we get by working?

C. According to the text, who is responsible for American successful economy?

D. Besides celebrating American workers, what else is it about?

E. When and why was the Labor movement created?

F. What is the explanation for not working on Labor Day?

G. Is Labor Day celebrated in your country?

H. What do you do when there's an extra-long weekend?
