Healthy Aging Affordable Florida:

Healthy Aging in Rural America United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee on Aging,2001 Evidence-Based Programming for Older Adults Marcia G. Ory,Matthew Lee Smith,2015-06-17 There is increased world wide concern about the impact of multiple chronic conditions especially among the rapidly aging population Simultaneously over the past decade there has been an emergence of state wide and national initiatives to reduce the burden of chronic conditions that draw upon the translation of evidence based programs EPB into community practice Yet little has been written about the national and international implementation dissemination and sustainability of such programs This Research Topic features articles about EBPs for older adults including a range of articles that focus on the infrastructure needed to widely disseminate EBP as well as individual participant impacts on physical mental and social aspects of health and well being Using a pragmatic research perspective this Research Topic will advance knowledge that aims to enhance practice inform policy and build systems of support and delivery in regard to the reach effectiveness adoption implementation and maintenance of evidence based interventions for older adults The focus is on knowledge transfer rather than knowledge generation but with a dual emphasis on the dissemination and sustainability of EBP that have been tested and shown effective as well as the adaptation of practice based interventions into evidence based programs This Research Topic draws upon grand scale efforts to deliver these programs and include both U S as well as international examples Commentaries discuss processes in the development and measurement of EBP and reflect perspectives from program developers and major national and regional funders of EBP as well as professionals and practitioners in the field The full length articles focus on four major programmatic areas 1 chronic disease self management programs 2 fall prevention programs 3 general wellness and physical activity programs and 4 mental health programs Additionally articles are included to discuss cross cutting issues related to building partnerships and the research infrastructure for the implementation evaluation and dissemination of evidence based programming The intent of this Research Topic is to enhance practice inform policy and build systems of support and delivery for EBP It is written for a diverse audience and contains practical implications and recommendations for introducing delivering and sustaining EBP in a multitude of settings Long-term Care for the Frail Elderly in Florida Larry Polivka,Burton David Dunlop,Max B. Rothman,1996 Hearing Health Care for Adults National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,Health and Medicine Division,Board on Health Sciences Policy,Committee on Accessible and Affordable Hearing Health Care for Adults,2016-10-06 The loss of hearing be it gradual or acute mild or severe present since birth or acquired in older age can have significant effects on one's communication abilities quality of life social participation and health Despite this many people with hearing loss do not seek or receive hearing health care The reasons are numerous complex and often interconnected For some hearing health care is not affordable For others the appropriate services are difficult to access or individuals do not know how or where to access them Others may not want to deal with the stigma that they and society may associate with needing hearing health care and obtaining that care Still others do not recognize they need hearing health care as hearing loss is an invisible health condition that often worsens gradually over time In the United States an estimated 30 million individuals 12 7 percent of Americans ages 12 years or older have hearing loss Globally hearing loss has been identified as the fifth leading cause of years lived with disability Successful hearing health care enables individuals with hearing loss to have the freedom to communicate in their environments in ways that are culturally appropriate and that preserve their dignity and function Hearing Health Care for Adults focuses on improving the accessibility and affordability of hearing health care for adults of all ages This study examines the hearing health care system with a focus on non surgical technologies and services and offers recommendations for improving access to the affordability of and the quality of hearing health care for adults of all ages Senior Care and Services Joaquin Jay Gonzalez III,, Roger L. Kemp,Willie Lee Britt,2020-04-28 There are more senior citizens in the U S today than ever before Public services for seniors are rapidly changing and expanding as this diverse population ages This collection of essays describes key developments in services being provided in cities across the nation Topics include seniors and the U S government health and wellness longevity caregiving housing and accommodations Social Security and finance immigrant minority and LGBT issues and life long learning and technology Official Florida Statutes Florida,1990 Florida State Health Plan ,1985
