Mental Wellness How To Los Angeles:

Deinstitutionalisation and After Despo Kritoaki, Vicky Long, Matthew Smith, 2016-11-29 The book relates the history of post war psychiatry focusing on deinstitutionalisation namely the shift from asylum to community in the second part of the twentieth century. After the Second World War psychiatry and mental health care were reshaped by deinstitutionalisation. But what exactly was involved in this process? What were the origins of deinstitutionalisation and what did it mean to those who experienced it? What were the ramifications both positive and negative of such a fundamental shift in psychiatric care? Post War Psychiatry in the Western World: Deinstitutionalisation and After seeks to answer these questions by exploring this momentous change in mental health care from 1945 to the present in a wide range of geographical settings. The book articulates a nuanced account of the history of deinstitutionalisation highlighting the constraints and inconsistencies inherent in treating the mentally ill outside of the asylum while seeking to inform current debates about how to help the most vulnerable members of society.

Mental Wellness in Aging Judah L. Ronch, Joseph A. Goldfield, 2003 This provocative volume guides practitioners and future practitioners alike to use strengths based interventions in helping older adults to help themselves and improve their quality of life by reinforcing and valuing their age wisdom and experiences. This book's renowned authors emphasize an extremely practical strengths based multidisciplinary social, physical, psychological and spiritual approach to therapy with older adults and an abundance of detailed case studies shows you how it can be applied. Learn innovative ways to focus interventions on older adults' remaining strengths and successful coping strategies using principles of autonomy and consumer empowerment to increase quality of life. Solution focused therapies reformulated constructs about retirement, creative approaches to aging such as transpersonal gerontology, cultural competence in care management, narrative therapies, strengths based treatment of traumas, new concepts of nursing facility care and more. This is the textbook for students in undergraduate, graduate or certificate programs in social work, gerontology, psychology, psychotherapy, geropsychiatry, counseling and marital and family therapy. Plus providers of mental health care, pastoral counseling, care, case management and allied health care providers will find inspiration and guidance for working with today's burgeoning population of elders.

Bulletproof Spirit, 3rd edition Captain Dan Willis, 2025-11-18 A state-of-the-art update of the pioneering guide for peace officers and other first responders and those who care about them. Suicide, depression, anxiety, post-traumatic stress, injury, PTSD, substance abuse and many more emotional and stress-related problems plague the first responder community. Hundreds of thousands of these brave public servants have unwittingly become victims of the professions they once loved. However, the suffering that results from a professional life of sacrifice and service can be prevented and mitigated. As a thirty-year law enforcement veteran, retired police captain and police academy instructor, Dan Willis has witnessed the damage of emotional trauma and has made it his personal mission to safeguard and enhance the wellness and wholeness of police officers, firefighters, EMTs, soldiers and other first responders. Bulletproof Spirit offers field tested expertise designed to be used by all first responders and their families to heal themselves and continue serving with compassion and strength Revised and expanded with the latest on post traumatic stress and organizational health plus links to online training videos Connections for Health Kathleen D.
