Meldgaard, 1997 RENNER Studies on New Religions is an initiative supported by the Danish Research Council for the Humanities. The series was established to publish books on alternative spiritual movements from a wide range of perspectives. The books will appeal to an international readership of scholars, students and professionals in the study of religion, theology, the arts and the social sciences. It is hoped that this series will provide a proper context for scientific exchange between these often competing disciplines. Stimulated by travel, mass media and education, individuals have spent the twentieth century questioning organized religion and at the start of a new millennium many are turning to spirituality rooted in ancient practice but modernized by secular experience. In this volume an international group of authors surveys the religious and spiritual movements growing in popularity in Western Europe including to name a few: theosophy, Transcendental Meditation, the Rosicrucians, the Occult and Hare Krishna.

Controversial New Religions Norway James R. Lewis, Associate Professor of Religion, University of Tromsø, Department of History of Religions, University of Copenhagen. Jesper Aagaard Petersen, Teaching Assistant, 2004-11-04. This book complements Lewis's Oxford Handbook of New Religious Movements. The former provides an overview of the state of the field. This volume collects papers on those specific New Religious Movements (NRMs) that have generated the most scholarly attention. With few exceptions, these organizations are also the controversial groups that have attracted the attention of the mass media, often because they have been involved in or accused of violent or anti-social activities. Among the movements to be profiled are such groups as the Branch Davidians, Heaven's Gate, Aum Shinrikyo, Solar Temple, Scientology, Falun Gong and many more. The book will function as a reference for scholars as a text for courses in NRMs and will also appeal to non-specialists including reporters, law enforcement, public policy makers and others.
