The Routledge Handbook of Identity and the Environment in the Classical and Medieval Worlds Rebecca Futo Kennedy, Molly Jones-Lewis, 2016-01-08 The Routledge Handbook of Identity and the Environment in the Classical and Medieval Worlds explores how environment was thought to shape ethnicity and identity discussing developments in early natural philosophy and historical ethnographies Defining environment broadly to include not only physical but also cultural environments natural and constructed the volume considers the multifarious ways in which environment was understood to shape the culture and physical characteristics of peoples as well as how the ancients manipulated their environments to achieve a desired identity This diverse collection includes studies not only of the Greco Roman world but also ancient China and the European Jewish and Arab inheritors and transmitters of classical thought In recent years work in this subject has been confined mostly to the discussion of texts that reflect an approach to the barbarian as other The Routledge Handbook of Identity and the Environment in the Classical and Medieval Worlds takes the discussion of ethnicity on a fresh course contextualising the concept of the barbarian within rational discourses such as cartography medicine and mathematical sciences an approach that allows us to more clearly discern the varied and nuanced approaches to ethnic identity which abounded in antiquity The innovative and thought provoking material in this volume realises new directions in the study of identity in the Classical and Medieval worlds

New Directions in the Study of Ancient Geography Duane W. Roller, 2020-07-28 This volume brings together five essays that represent the latest directions in the study of geography in classical antiquity Arranged chronologically these contributions cover several centuries and cultures ranging from ancient Mesopotamia to the Roman Empire and deal with topics such as ancient cosmology literary interpretations of geography ancient navigation and geography in the Roman Imperial world Beginning in the ancient Near East Paul T Keyser's essay considers how Greek scholars whose views on the cosmos are still relevant today were influenced by early Near Eastern beliefs about the universe Moving to the Hellenistic period Duane W Roller presents and provides commentary on a navigational guide for Ptolemaic seamen written by Ptolemy II s chief of naval staff Timosthenes of Rhodes Georgia L Irby provides an analysis of a literary map the Shield of Aeneas from Vergil s Aeneid as well as a detailed study of Pomponius Mela and his Chorographia the earliest surviving Greco Roman geographical treatise and the only extant independent geographical work in Latin An essay by Molly Ayn Jones Lewis completes the volume by describing how Tacitus s Germania of the early second century AD is a work heavily reliant on environmental determinism an issue that is still relevant today Together these essays demonstrate the great diversity of both ancient geographical writing and modern scholarship on ancient geography This volume will be greeted with enthusiasm by ancient historians and classical studies scholars particularly those interested in the cultural and political facets of geography
