Journalism and the Metaverse John V. Pavlik,2024-06-04 Journalism has been in a state of disruption since the development of the Internet The Metaverse what some describe as the future of the Internet is likely to fuel even further disruption in journalism Digital platforms and journalism enterprises are already investing substantial resources into the Metaverse or its likely components of augmented reality virtual reality and artificial intelligence Although research shows most of the public has little knowledge of the Metaverse many are keenly interested in what it or its components may bring Gartner 2022 predicts that a quarter of the public will spend at least one hour per day in the Metaverse by 2026 Journalism may be an important part of this future This book will provide a critical examination of the implications of the Metaverse for the continuing transformation of journalism in the digital age Mastering AI Jeremy Kahn,2025-07-08 A Fortune magazine journalist draws on his expertise and extensive contacts among the companies and scientists at the forefront of artificial intelligence to offer dramatic predictions of AI's impact over the next decade from reshaping our economy and the way we work learn and create to unknitting our social fabric jeopardizing our democracy and fundamentally altering the way we think Within the next five years Jeremy Kahn predicts AI will disrupt almost every industry and enterprise with vastly increased efficiency and productivity It will restructure the workforce making AI copilots a must for every knowledge worker It will revamp education meaning children around the world can have personal portable tutors It will revolutionize health care making individualized targeted pharmaceuticals more affordable It will compel us to reimagine how we make art compose music and write and publish books The potential of generative AI to extend our skills talents and creativity as humans is undeniably exciting and promising But while this new technology has a bright future it also casts a dark and fearful shadow AI will provoke pervasive disruptive potentially devastating knock on effects Leveraging his unrivaled access to the leaders scientists futurists and others who are making AI a reality Kahn will argue that if not carefully designed and vigilantly regulated AI will deepen income inequality depressing wages while imposing winner take all markets across much of the economy AI risks undermining democracy as truth is overtaken by misinformation racial bias and harmful stereotypes Continuing a process begun by the internet AI will rewire our brains likely inhibiting our ability to think critically to remember and even to get along with one another unless we all take decisive action to prevent this from happening Much as Michael Lewis's classic The New New Thing offered a prescient insightful and eminently readable account of life inside the dot com bubble Mastering AI delivers much needed guidance for anyone eager to understand the AI boom and what comes next
